CREDITS

The 2018 Wofford College football media guide is a publication of the Wofford athletic media relations office. Editor: Brent Williamson. Research conducted by Phillip Stone of the Wofford Library Archives. Photographs provided by Willis Glassgow, Mark Olencki, Trent Brock and John Byrum. Headshots by Mark Olencki. Printed August 2018.

WOFFORD COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Wofford's mission is to provide superior liberal arts education that prepares its students for extraordinary and positive contributions to society. The focus of Wofford's mission is upon fostering commitment to excellence in character, performance, leadership, service to others and life-long learning.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working media credentials should be made to the Associate Athletic Director of Media Relations, Wofford College, 429 N. Church Street, Spartanburg, SC 29303. Requests should be made one week in advance. Requests are screened with care to insure a working press box. Children, spouses, pets and cheering are not allowed in compliance with the working code of the Football Writers Association of America.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews with members of the team during the season must be arranged through the Athletic Media Relations Office. The Wofford locker room and athletic training room in the Richardson Building is closed at all times. Please call ahead and allow 24 hours to set up interviews with players. Arrangements will be made for telephone and in-person interviews at a time that is mutually agreeable to the reporter/broadcaster and the student-athlete. Any television crews wishing to tape an interview with Coach Conklin may do so daily before practice. Please call ahead to allow an office representative to help facilitate the interview.

PARKING

Parking for all members of the working media for Terrier home football games can be found in the new lot behind Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. A parking pass is required.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Wofford locker room in the Richardson Building is CLOSED to the media after each game. Coach Conklin and requested student-athletes will meet with the media following each game in the team meeting room.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo passes for newspaper photographers are available from the athletic media relations office. Freelance photographers are not credentialed unless on specific assignment. Photo passes entitle the photographer access to the sideline and the press box. At no times will photographers be allowed to shoot in the team bench areas.

POSTGAME COMMUNICATIONS

There is a telephone in the press box for use by the media as well as wireless internet service. A photocopier is also available.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Members of the media will be provided with game programs, flip cards, current statistics and pregame notes prior to the start of the game. Statistical summaries will include play-by-play, quarterly stats, complete team and individual stats. There will also be pregame food service available to accredited media members.

RADIO

There are a limited number of radio booths in the press box at Gibbs Stadium. Requests for permission to broadcast must be made in writing at least two weeks in advance of the game. There is space in each booth for three persons, but no spouses or children are allowed. A regular phone line is provided, along with one ethernet connection per radio booth. ISDN lines may be ordered through AT&T.

TELEVISION

There are no regularly reserved booths for television. Anyone wishing to televise a game from Gibbs Stadium should contact the athletic media relations office at least one month prior to the game and, preferably, before the start of the season.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

Wofford can provide broadcast-quality video of home game highlights via FTP download or dropbox as requested. Contact the Director of Video Services for more information.

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

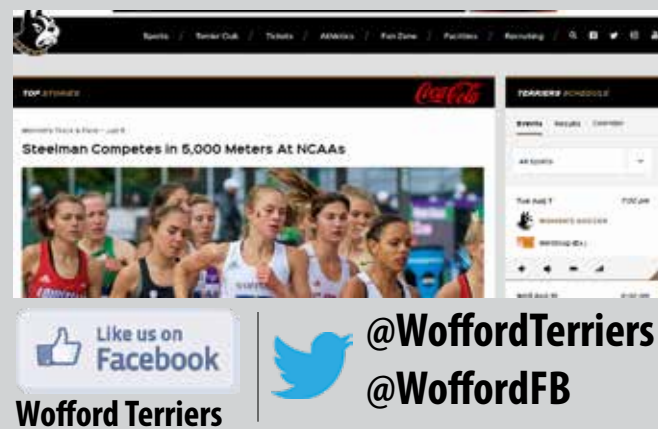

Media members are invited to attend a weekly luncheon with Coach Conklin in the Ginkgo Room of the Burwell Building on campus. The luncheons are usually held at 11:30 a.m. on Monday. Wofford student-athletes are normally available, depending upon class schedules. News releases and statistics for both teams will be distributed.

WOFFORD SPORTS NETWORK

All Wofford College football games are heard live on the Wofford IMG Sports Network, which is presented digitally on www.woffordterriers.com and the Tuneln radio smartphone app. In addition, all home games will be available on ESPN3 or ESPN+ this season. The "Coach Conklin Radio Show" will also air digitally on Monday nights during the season. Jim Noble and Thom Henson are the "Voices of the Terriers" and Van Hipp joins them from the sidelines.

Jim Noble is in his first season as the play-by-play announcer of Wofford football and basketball. Noble joins the Wofford team after more than 20 years of sportscasting on a local, regional and national level. Most recently, Noble has been a host on SiriusXM satellite radio, hosting on various channels including ESPN-U College Sports Radio, Rio Olympics Radio and the NASCAR radio channel. He also hosted the "College Football Blitz" for IMG College radio affiliates last season.

Prior to that, Noble was a TV reporter for NBC, TNT and ESPN's NASCAR coverage, where he served also as a regular correspondent on "SportsCenter". He was a regional correspondent for Fox Sports Net's "Southern Sports Report", covering the ACC and SEC, as well as the NFL's Carolina Panthers and NBA's Charlotte Hornets. Noble got his start in television at local stations in Macon GA, Savannah GA, and Rochester NY before arriving in Charlotte, where he worked for CBS affiliate WBTV.

A native of Needham, MA and a graduate of Washington and Lee University, Noble lives in Charlotte with his wife Elizabeth and son Drew.

Henson, the color analyst, is in his 19th football season as a member of the Wofford Sports Network. He is also the color commentator for Terrier basketball games for the 18th year.

A 1996 graduate of Wofford, Henson is Director of Parent Engagement at his alma mater. He is also a former student assistant in the Wofford sports information office as well as working one summer in media relations with the Carolina Panthers.

Henson and his wife, Perry, reside in Spartanburg.

The couple have a son, Michael and a daughter, Lillie. Henson was selected as the 2013 Honorary Letterman by the Wofford Athletic Hall of Fame.

Van Hipp is in his seventh season as the sideline reporter. Hipp is Chairman of American Defense International, Inc. (ADI), a Washington, DC based consulting firm specializing in government affairs, business development and public relations.

Hipp received his bachelor's degree in Economics from Wofford College, and is a past President of the National Alumni Association. He received his Juris Doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law. Hipp and his wife Jane have three children: Trey, Sarah Camille, and Jackson.

Wofford College, established in 1854, is a four-year, independent, residential liberal arts college located in Spartanburg, S.C. It offers a distinctive program with 25 major fields of study to a student body of 1,650 undergraduates.

Nationally known for the strength of its academic program, outstanding faculty, study abroad participation and successful graduates, Wofford ranks well in U.S. News & World Report, The Princeton Review, The Fiske Guide to College, Kiplinger's Personal Finance and the Open Doors Report on International Education Exchange, an organization that ranks Wofford #4 in the nation for study abroad participation.

Wofford has produced six Rhodes Scholars and is home to one of the nation's 283 Phi Beta Kappa chapters.

A leader in offering high-impact learning opportunities to students, Wofford encourages students to take advantage of all that Wofford, and through it the world, has to offer.

These opportunities include internships with scientific, corporate and non-profit organizations across the globe, undergraduate research opportunities, service-learning in the local community, international study abroad programming and a thriving host of co-curricular opportunities on campus.

One of those co-curricular offerings is the R. Michael James Fund, a student-managed and operated investment organization. The Space in the Mungo Center also prepares students for life after Wofford by offering professional development, career services and much more.

Student and residence life on campus include exciting Division I NCAA athletics, opportunities to participate in one of the college's Greek-letter fraternities or sororities, competitive intramurals, a diverse selection of clubs, student publications and a housing plan that helps students progress from first year through fourth in a close-knit community that builds independence. The residence life experience culminates in a final year in

The Village, beautiful, Charlestonian-style apartments designed to help transition students from college student to successful graduate.

Thanks to the generosity of alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson '59, the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts opened in May of 2017 and the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium to house new basketball and volleyball arenas opened in September of 2017. The new Greek Village was completed in the spring of 2016.

Wofford's entire 175-acre campus is a national arboretum, named the Roger Milliken Arboretum at Wofford College in honor of the late longtime trustee and benefactor.

Wofford offers distinctive learning opportunities that set it apart from other liberal arts colleges. A few of those high-impact educational experiences include:

The Interim, a January term that encourages students and faculty to explore new interests both on and off campus. A small sampling of on-campus programs include: Animal Cognition and Rat Basketball, Personal Finance, and Riding and Researching the Horse. Travel/study projects will take students to Australia, Cuba, China, Ireland, Germany, Japan and other sites around the world. Students also complete internships both locally and around the globe.

The Bonner Scholar program, a service-learning scholarship program that places deserving students in volunteer positions throughout the community.

The Space in the Mungo Center, a place where students can build upon their liberal arts education by adding professional skills desired by employers and graduate schools. The Space includes The Space to: Prepare (career services and professional development training); The Space to: Impact (a four-year scholarship program that empowers students to impact the world); The Space to: Launch (entrepreneurship support and competitions); The Space to: Consult (hands-on research, writing and problem-solving training within a consulting framework); and The Space to: Explore (in-depth global study).

Environmental Studies provides a creative and supportive learning environment that helps students pursue their goals in the field of sustainability. It operates both on Wofford's campus and at the college's Goodall Environmental Studies Center at Glendale, S.C. The property where the center is located borders 19 acres of protected green space along Lawson's Fork Creek.

Neuroscience, a program that allows students to examine the nervous system and its regulation of behavior through an experimental approach, is offered jointly by the Departments of Psychology and Biology.

Computational Science, a fast-growing interdisciplinary field that is at the intersection of the sciences, computer science and mathematics, involves learning to store, retrieve, process and visualize massive amounts of information in web-accessed databases.

The Novel Experience, a first-year reading and writing program that offers an introduction to the academic rigors of Wofford while familiarizing students with the Spartanburg community.

The Creative Writing Concentration, a program led by outstanding published faculty authors that provides additional opportunities for students to hone their creative writing skills, earn coveted prizes and become published writers. The Wofford Writers Series brings published writers to campus to augment the Creative Writing Concentration.

The Presidential International Scholar program offers an opportunity for an outstanding, intellectually gifted student to visit developing countries researching a specific academic area of interest. The student then returns to campus to share his or her experiences.

Presidential Seminar, a weekly seminar for outstanding seniors hosted by Wofford President Nayef H. Samhat. Seminar participants explore interdisciplinary subjects of current significance. The college now has a similar program for juniors.

Liberty Fellowship is a two-year leadership experience for young citizens of South Carolina with exemplary promise for societal achievement. The Liberty Fellowship is housed at the college and offered in partnership with South Carolina businessman Hayne Hipp and the Aspen Institute.

Dating back to 1919 when Frank Ellerbee played baseball for the Washington Senators, Wofford alumni have made an impact in professional sports. From basketball to baseball to football, golf and soccer, Wofford alumni are making their marks in professional leagues.

William McGirt has earned over $10 million on the PGA Tour since earning his card in 2011. He won the 2016 Memorial Tournament and has played in several majors, including the 2017 Masters. Forrest Lasso is playing professional soccer with FC Cincinnati, which will join MLS next season.

In basketball, Mike Lenzly was a member of the 2012 Great Britain Olympic Team. Additional Terriers who have played overseas recently include Noah Dahlman, Drew Gibson, Junior Salters, Howard Wilkerson, Brad Loesing, Drew Crowell, Lee Skinner, Karl Cochran, Kevin Giltner, Spencer Collins and Eric Garcia.

Wofford also has been well represented in minor league baseball. Brandon Waring, Michael Gilmartin, Alex Wilson, J.D. Osborne, Luke Leftwich, Will Stillman, Matt Milburn, Spencer Kulman, Kody Ruedisili, Jacob-Condra Bogan and Adam Scott all were with teams in the last five seasons. John Cornely made his MLB debut with the Atlanta Braves in 2015.

Over the past ten years, Andy Strickland (Atlanta and Jacksonville), Tommy Irvin (Arizona), Pat Illig (Detroit), Kasey Redfern (Jacksonville, San Diego and Detroit), Alvin Scioneaux (San Diego), Brenton Bersin (Carolina), and David Marvin (Atlanta) have been in NFL training camps. Bersin won back-to-back NFC South Championships and reached Super Bowl 50 in 2016. Ameet Pall was the fifth overall pick in the 2012 Canadian Football League draft.

THE STADIUM

Prior to the 1996 season, the Wofford football team played home games at Snyder Field. The first football game was played at Snyder Field in 1930, with lights installed for the 1948 season. With the move to NCAA Division I, a new football facility was a priority. Gibbs Stadium seats approximately 8,500 in grandstands, while an additional 4,500 seats are available in both endzones. The south endzone, known as the Verandah Lot, has become prime tailgating space for donors to the Terrier Club.

The press box includes two radio booths, a television booth, scoreboard control room, plus two coaches boxes. A crows nest for videographers is also provided. On the second level, the Mungo Room is a hospitality suite that is available as the President's Box on gameday and is used throughout the year as a meeting room.

Architects for Gibbs Stadium were McMillan, Smith and Partners, while M.B. Kahn Construction was the general contractor. The overall budget for the project was approximately $4.5 million. In 2015, the playing surface was replaced.

The facility was made possible with a gift from the Gibbs Foundation, along with support from federal economic development grants and Spartanburg County School District 7. Gibbs Stadium is the home of Wofford football, along with Spartanburg High School football and the Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas. During the summer the facility is used by the Carolina Panthers for training camp.

JIMMY AND MARSHA GIBBS

Wofford College's football stadium, opened in October 1996, is named in honor of Jimmy and Marsha Gibbs, recognizing their long friendship with the college and lead gift of $1 million for the stadium project.

Mr. Gibbs is president of Gibbs International of Spartanburg, the world's largest dealer in pre-owned textile machinery. The Gibbs' relationship with Wofford spans two generations. The late Melvin I. "Razor" Gibbs of the class of 1943 earned 16 varsity letters at Wofford as a student in the early 1940s and after World War II. In 1983, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs established an endowed football scholarship in his father's memory.

Jimmy and Marsha Gibbs

The Wofford Captain's Council presented the Gibbs with its 2004 Distinguished Service Award. The Gibbs also received a Wofford Distinguished Service award from the Southern Conference in 2004. In 2008, the Gibbs, along with Ed Wile and Harold Chandler, announced a challenge gift of $1.5 million which was used to raise funds for endowed athletic scholarships. The Gibbs also provided the funding for the videoboard installed prior to the 2010 season.

The LED video board installed in 2010 is 57 feet wide and 22 feet tall.

RICHARDSON BUILDING

THE RICHARDSON BUILDING

The home of the Wofford College Athletic Department since 1996 is the Richardson Physical Activities Building. The facility includes offices for the administration, football, baseball and other sports on the second floor. Also included on the second floor is an aerobic dance room, team meeting room, racquetball courts and a student-athlete lounge. Locker rooms for football, men's and women's cross country/track and field, men's and women's soccer and a training room are located on the first floor.

Wofford alumnus Jerry Richardson made donations in 2008 and 2018 that were used for enhancing the Richardson Building. Numerous improvements were made in the facility to ensure that it is one of the most advanced athletic facilities in the nation.

The most recent renovations to the building include a 1,200 square foot addition to house a new state of the art hydrotherapy suite which includes a Hydroworx aquatic therapy pool with underwater treadmill. The existing training room was relocated to adjoin the new hydrotherapy suite, which results in a much-needed increased size for the new training room. Supporting the training area are three staff offices, exam room, and state-of-the-art x-ray room. The new team meeting room is equipped with the latest video technology and a media backdrop for postgame press conferences.

The existing football locker room was expanded and upgraded. The upgrades included new paint, carpet, ceilings, and lighting. The equipment room has been reconfigured, and a new high-density storage system was purchased to increase capacity and improve efficiency in the handling of equipment. In addition to the visible improvements a new supplemental mechanical unit to control moisture and improve indoor air quality was installed, along with new HVAC controls in the entire building.

With the campus fitness center relocated to the Benjamin Johnson Arena, renovations were also made to the second floor. A second team meeting room was created with sliding glass walls to provide flexibility for a variety of uses. A student-athlete lounge was built near the racquetball courts which includes two 70-inch monitors.

The building also includes the Harley Room, a large multipurpose area overlooking Gibbs Stadium. The area hosts a wide variety of campus events during the year. On the patio, a sculpture of Jerry Richardson was dedicated on May 12, 2014 to honor him and recognize the 20th anniversary of the Carolina Panthers summer training camp being held on campus. The sculpture, created by noted California artist Todd Andrews, depicts Richardson seeming to be ready to walk over to Gibbs Stadium to watch the Terriers – for which he also played – take on the next worthy opponent.

THE JOE E. TAYLOR CENTER

Wofford alumnus and former South Carolina Secretary of Commerce Joe Taylor donated $1 million for the renovation of the Curry Building into the Joe E. Taylor Athletic Center. The Taylor Center features a 7,000 square foot weight room and offices for athletic department staff. The building, located next to Gibbs Stadium, was completed in June of 2009.

The weight room facility is equipped with a total of 24 racks with built-in pull-up bars and nearly 25,000 pounds of plates, dumbbells and olympic weights. The 24 racks are divided, with twelve used with platforms and twelve used with benches. Additional equipment includes four pulldown machines, four low row machines, five power runners, six glute/ham machines, two decline ab machines, a leg press and exercise bike. Also included is a large area of Mondo track flooring, which is used with the step-up boxes, plyo boxes and hurdle sets in speed development.

The Taylor Center also provides offices for administration and numerous sports, including women's soccer, men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis and cross country and track and field. A conference room and several work areas give the coaching staff much needed space.

MISSION STATEMENT

The aim of the Wofford College Strength and Conditioning Department is to allow every student-athlete the best training opportunity with proper instruction and program implementation to create progressive gains in strength, speed, fitness levels, mobility and body composition over the tenure of the athletic career. This will be achieved through a created culture consumed with hard work, discipline, commitment, and knowledge of the craft of training in a highly competitive environment.

THE PHILOSOPHY

The Strength and Conditioning Program consists of prescribed training based on sport specific demands with a great emphasis on properly executing movement patterns and training within the assigned threshold to optimize abilities and capabilities. Keys to this are:

- Evaluation and Assessment
- Individual Needs / Sport Specificity
- Weight Training Movements
- Running Prescription
- Plyometric Training
- Student-Athlete Health
- Recovery and Restoration
- Training Culture

RICHARDSON INDOOR STADIUM

A new era at Wofford began in 2018 with the opening of the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. The new home of basketball and volleyball is adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football.

Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson, Class of 1959, provided the gift to fund the facility that includes a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 350-seat volleyball competition venue as well as offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, training rooms and special fan areas, including several open-air suites. The facility replaces Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate gymnasium for intramural and campus recreational activities.

"The Richardsons have done it again," head men's basketball coach Mike Young said. "First the Center for the Arts and now the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. I'm eager to tour prospective students through both buildings to show them, as well as tell them, that Wofford student-athletes are students first."

The Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium also has a seating capacity for non-athletics functions, such as commencement and concerts, of 4,500. The facility includes "Club 51" for club seat holders, the "Boneyard" lounge in the student section, state of the art sound system and acoustical design, along with electronic charging stations throughout the building.

BENJAMIN JOHNSON ARENA

When the campus community bid farewell to the Benjamin Johnson Arena as the home of Wofford basketball and volleyball in 2017, it created new possibilities for student recreation and wellness. The renovated Benjamin Johnson Arena student fitness center opened in January of 2018.

"The Benjamin Johnson Arena, which opened in 1981, holds a lot of history for Wofford College, and we're glad we are able to continue to use the facility as a larger, better fitness center for our students, faculty and staff," President Nayef Samhat says. "The addition of the new Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium provides us with this terrific opportunity to give our community a place in the Benjamin Johnson Arena to exercise both their bodies and their minds."

The lower level of the arena (once basketball and volleyball courts and bleachers) houses a new multi-sport playing surface with three courts. A walking track surrounds the perimeter of the courts. The locker rooms were completely renovated. The concourse areas have become the new student fitness center with the installation of a variety of equipment and machines.

The east concourse has weight equipment, including free weights, benches and machines. The other concourse has cardio equipment, including treadmills, stationary bikes and elliptical machines. The concourses also have open locker storage and new audio-visual equipment.

In addition to the fitness activities, Benjamin Johnson Arena is home of a comprehensive intramural, recreation, and club sports programs that encompass team sports, individual sports, fitness classes, club sports, as well as various other programs. Highlights include intramural basketball and softball, equestrian club, men's club lacrosse, club ultimate frisbee and an outdoors club.

The arena is named after Benjamin O. Johnson '30 who was a Spartanburg textile executive associated with Spartan Mills. Mr. Johnson was also a trustee of Wofford College as well as a benefactor. Wofford moved into the Benjamin Johnson Arena in 1981 after playing in adjacent Andrews Field House for 50 years. The $4.5 million arena is part of the Campus Life Building, which was designed to serve as the center of athletic, social and cultural activity on campus.

The first men's basketball contest was held on January 22, 1981, as The Citadel scored a 65-64 win over Wofford. The Terriers first win in the arena was on January 26, 1981. The men had an overall record of 334-131 in 37 seasons in the facility.

The Wofford women's basketball team fielded its first varsity team in the 1980-81 season, moving into Benjamin Johnson Arena in 1981 after playing in Andrews Fieldhouse for the first half of the season. The first women's basketball game was held on January 22, 1981, with Wofford defeating Sacred Heart 74-25.

The City's origins predate the Revolutionary War. Spartanburg was named for a unit of American Revolution forces called the "Spartan Rifles" who helped defeat the British at the Battle of Cowpens in 1781, under the leadership of General Daniel Morgan.

The town of Spartanburg was incorporated in 1831 and later as a city in 1880 by the 13 Original States and Tennessee. During this time Spartanburg was booming due in large part to the rapidly expanding textile industry.

In the 1870s, Spartanburg became a railroad "hub city," with mainline railroads extending from Magnolia Street depot in all directions, taking passengers and freight to Charleston, Augusta, Atlanta, Asheville, Charlotte and points beyond. As many as 90 trains per day could be seen and heard operating in Spartanburg during the golden age of the American railroad, 1900-20.

During the 1920s, Spartanburg built South Carolina's first municipal airport and claimed the state's first commercial radio station (WSPA). Its leadership in the state was reflected by the election of several residents as governor.

Thousands of U.S. soldiers bound for overseas service in World Wars I and II trained at camps in Spartanburg. The post headquarters for Camp Wadsworth (1917-19) was located at the present site of WestGate Mall, and the Camp Croft (1940-45) was located south of the city. Much of that military reservation has become Croft

State Park.

After World War II, Spartanburg made a concerted effort to promote its location at the junction of Interstates 85 and 26 to international business. One of the greatest successes of this campaign was the development of the BMW manufacturing center near the Greenville-Spartanburg Airport.

Spartanburg's downtown, which always has been anchored by the campuses of Wofford and Converse Colleges, has been undergoing a major revival since the mid-1990s. In addition to the corporate headquarters for Denny's, Advance America, QS-1 and several other companies, the city has acquired a magnificent public library, the Marriott Hotel at Renaissance Park and most recently, the Chapman Arts Center and the USC Upstate George Dean Johnson School of Business. The area surrounding Morgan Square gradually is redeveloping with a variety of interesting restaurants and urban apartment-style housing.

Throughout the 20th century, textile manufacturing companies formed the backbone of the Spartanburg economy. The most significant of these companies still in operation is internationally respected Milliken & Company.

Blessed by geography and climate as well as by energetic and well-educated citizenry, Spartanburg is emerging as one of the centers of a 21st century metropolis that extends along the South Carolina portion of the I-85 corridor.

ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE

Wofford's football program was ranked among the top 10 percent of FCS teams in the Academic Performance Review (APR) in 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 to earn public recognition. In 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017, Wofford was honored by the FCS ADA for the highest APR in the Southern Conference. The Terriers lead the SoCon with 161 Southern Conference Fall All-Academic Team selections since the program started in 2003. Wofford has had at least one player named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District Team since 2000, with four players earning Academic All-America honors. James Zotto was the latest to be recognized in 2013.

STERLING ALLEN

Allen, a native of Florence, S.C. (McGlenaghan High School) was one of Wofford's top linemen in the early 1970s. Allen earned second team NAIA All-America honors at guard in 1969 and was named Little All-America in 1969 and in 1970 as a guard. He was selected to the AFCA All-America team in 1970 as a guard. Allen helped the Terriers to an 11-1 record as a senior. Wofford won 20 consecutive games during his final two years and were ranked number one in the nation in the NAIA poll. Allen was named Wofford's best blocker at the 1969 football banquet. He was a unanimous selection to the 1969 all-district team. He finished the '70 season ranked fourth in the nation after losing in the championship game to Texas A&I. In 1983, Allen was chosen to Wofford's All-Time Football team as an offensive lineman.

ALMA MATER

On the city's northern border,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
As the years go by.
May it ever be our watchword,
"Conquer and Prevail."
Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
Dear old Wofford, hail.

AUBURN

In what many people call the biggest win in school history, Wofford defeated Auburn 19-14 on Sept. 22, 1950 in Montgomery. The Terriers, a five-touchdown underdog, turned three Auburn fumbles into touchdowns with 19-year old sophomore quarterback Bobby McLellan scoring two touchdowns and passing for another. The game-winning score came early in the fourth period with Auburn holding a 14-13 lead. Dennis Barbare set it up with "one of the best catches I have ever seen," according to Coach Phil Dickens. Barbare's 17-yard catch from Bobby Starnes put the ball at the 2-yard line, and McLellan scored from there. The victory celebration just before midnight involved about 100 Wofford students and fans in the traffic circle on Morgan Square. They cheered, blew car horns and bugles and finished by singing the alma mater.

BOSS THE TERRIER

The fearless leader of the Terriers, Boss (short for Boston Terrier) has entertained Wofford fans since 2001 at football, basketball and baseball contests. Boss is also the only mascot with his own holiday, October 16. That is National Boss' Day (well, maybe it's not just for him but he celebrates it anyway). Boss also participated in the Carolina Panthers "Mascot Mania" football game halftime show at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte in 2006. Formerly known as Big Ruff, the mascot became known as Boss in 2001.

JIM BRAKEFIELD

Brakefield enjoyed great success as both the head football coach and head baseball coach at Wofford. He served 14 years as the head baseball coach and was Wofford's winningest ever baseball coach with a career record of 128-70. Brakefield spent 14 years as an assistant football coach before becoming Wofford's head football coach in 1967 and served in that role for five years, going 28-16 and leading the Terriers to the NAIA National Championship game in 1970. He left Wofford following the 1970 season and became the head football coach at Appalachian State. Brakefield is credited with installing the Wingbone offense at Wofford, a hybrid of the Wishbone. Brakefield served four years in the Navy during World War II and won two Distinguished Flying Crosses while making 49 combat missions as a torpedo plane pilot. He remained in the Naval Reserve until 1967 as a captain.

HAROLD CHANDLER

Chandler, a native of Belton, S.C., was Wofford's starting quarterback in 1969 and 1970 and threw for 3,039 yards in his career. As a junior in 1969, he completed 69 of 133 passes for 1,133 yards and 10 touchdowns. As a senior, Chandler hit on 113 of 190 passing attempts for 1,610 yards and 11 touchdowns. He was an all-state selection in 1970 and a Phi Beta Kappa inductee. In 1983, Chandler was chosen to Wofford's All-Time Football team as a quarterback. He recently ended a term as Chairman of the Wofford College Board of Trustees.

CIGAR BOWL

The only bowl game that Wofford has appeared in is the 1949 Cigar Bowl. Played in Tampa, Florida, the Cigar Bowl pitted the 11-0 Terriers against Florida State on January 2, 1950. Wofford had a 23-game unbeaten streak, built upon the shoulders of a mix of World War II veterans who had returned to college and a bunch of 18-year old freshmen. The Terriers departed for Tampa on Dec. 28 and pulled into Waycross, Georgia to scrimmage and spend the night before continuing

THE TERRIER SCULPTURE

A sculpture of a Terrier was unveiled on March 25, 2008 outside of the Student Life Building as a gift to Wofford College from the Class of 1956. The following is the text of an address given by Talmage Boyd Skinner, Jr., 1956, Chaplain Emeritus of Wofford College on the dedication.

The mascot of a college should, in large measure, represent the character of the place. In this Palmetto State, we are surrounded by a bevy of mascots. There are Gamecocks and Tigers, Bulldogs and a Rooster named Chanticleer, Indians, Paladins, Cougars, Valkyries, and one school has a sock for an ensign. There are Trojans, Pioneers, and Spartans, and various Cats and feathered creatures. In all the land, only two other schools are Terriers. Some will laugh when we affirm that we are the only true Terriers. Some chuckle when we are audacious enough to claim to be unique and even superior in so many aspects of being a college. The most arrogant of us will admit that there are many good colleges. We have even tried to copy some. I have always been a bit uncomfortable when we talk of another school being a – "flagship" that we need to emulate. Hey! We ARE the flagship! Forgive the pride of some old guys who have loved this little school for over half a century. Yes, we did not come to Wofford just to purchase an education; we joined Wofford. We were adopted into the family with a bond that cannot be broken. Many colleges claim to be family. We truly are.

Ours is a bond of shared experience hammered out on the playing fields against foes our size and those with more students than we have living alumni. It does not stop with athletics. The term "student athlete" has authenticity at Wofford. The bond is from a shared academic experience that is not content just to pass on so-called facts, but prepares students to think and to continue to grow. The "proof of the pudding" is in the doctors, lawyers, college presidents and professors, teachers, coaches, leaders in business and service – even in the ministry of the Church. A bond is created in the experience of the arts – the theater program, choral music, strings. One thing we lack – a band – not just the band class that plays well once or twice a year, but a BAND for spirit and musical experience. A bond is created through service programs and the physical arts witnessed by so many exhibitions on campus. Not the least is a religious life program that is open and tolerant, that walks with students seeking answers and helps them first learn to ask questions.

We, the Class of 1956 present this Terrier to our college as a symbol of Wofford Spirit in all aspects of this place like no other. We want to add to the tradition of this sacred ground. We want to remind the present Wofford that there is a past on which she stands and remind all of us that it all will be forgotten if we do not have a vision for the future. Our goal should be deeper than the usual quest for reputation, wealth, and prestige. Dr. Dunlap has always called Wofford a "kingdom of the just." May that ever be our watchword. It may be a simple, unsophisticated phrase, but we are called not to be powerful, but good. As the prophet Micah said, "What does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God."

The Class of 1956 proudly and humbly presents this physical representation of the Spirit of Wofford College and all those members of our family who ever lived or presently live on the "City's Northern Border," and all who are yet to dwell in the shadow of the Twin Towers.

WOFFORD FOOTBALL A-Z

on to Tampa. An exhausting scrimmage in Waycross may have led the Terriers dropping a 19-6 decision to the Seminoles in what was clearly an upset.

FISHER DeBERRY

A 1960 Wofford graduate, DeBerry was the head coach at the Air Force Academy for 23 seasons from 1984-2006. The Cheraw, SC native compiled a record of 169-109-1, the winningest mark in AFA history. During his coaching career, he received numerous awards including the 2001 State Farm Coach of Distinction Award. DeBerry was the 1985 National Coach of the Year and earned conference coach of the year honors in 1985, 1995 and 1998 while leading the Falcons to 14 Commander in Chief trophies and a 35-11 record against Army and Navy. DeBerry was a Wofford assistant football coach in the 1969-70 seasons as the Terriers advanced to the 1970 NAIA national championship game. He also coached the Terrier baseball team in 1970. In 2011, he became the first Wofford alumnus to be honored with a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame.

PHIL DICKENS

Wofford's head coach from 1947-52, "Phantom" Phil Dickens compiled a record of 40-16-7, a winning percentage of .691. Dickens came to Wofford from Tennessee where he had played for General Bob Neyland. Highlights of the Dickens era included five straight ties to open the 1948 season (a national record); an undefeated 11-0 regular season in 1949 followed by a trip to the Cigar Bowl in Tampa; a 19-14 upset of Auburn in the 1950 season opener and the Terriers' first victory over Furman in 35 years in 1951. After the 1952 season, Dickens moved to the University of Wyoming, where he was successful from 1953-57, and later, he was a respected head football coach and athletics administrator at Indiana.

AUBREY FAUST

Aubrey Faust '43 was the first Terrier to earn All-America honors. He played end on the 1942 squad that posted a 2-5 record for Coach Ted Petoskey. The Terriers did not have a football team for the next three seasons due to World War II. Faust was killed in action at Normandy.

FROG REAMES

Carroll F. Reames '26 played quarterback for the Terriers. During the 1920's, most football teams lined up in a double wing or spread formation. Just before the snap of the ball, the backs went through a series of movements to confuse the defense. As he moved, Reames gave an odd little jump that gave him his life-long nickname, "Frog."

FIRST GAME

Wofford played the first college football game in South Carolina on December 14, 1889. Wofford defeated Furman 5-1 in a game that featured "no uniforms for its players, no positions and rules formulated before the game." According to Wofford alumnus G. Rouqie '91 in the January 1890 issue of the Old Gold and Black, the game "last one hour and half, with two fifteen-minute rests, and was won by ease by Wofford, the score being five to one. The visiting team (Furman) left on the afternoon train wiser and sadder men."

ISAAC GOODPASTER

A Wofford wide receiver from 1999-2002, Goodpaster led the Terriers in receiving as a junior when he caught 25 passes for 422 yards and two touchdowns. His career statistics of 30 catches for 472 yards are not remarkable. But Goodpaster became an outstanding collegiate football player despite being legally blind. Isaac was diagnosed with Stargardt's disease, a genetic disorder that caused his eyesight to range from 20/200 to 20/400. His outstanding talent and ability to overcome attracted the attention of such national media outlets as The New York Times and CBS' "The Early Show."

THE CAROLINA PANTHERS

The Carolina Panthers have held training camp at Wofford since their inaugural season in 1995 and it will be held on campus until at least 2019. The camp provides Wofford tremendous national exposure and visibility. Media members that visit Wofford during the camp include ESPN, Fox Sports, NFL Network, USA Today and Sports Illustrated. Local print and television media from markets including Columbia, Charlotte, Raleigh/Durham/Chapel Hill, Asheville and Greensboro/Winston-Salem are on campus on a daily basis.

According to SI.com's Tim Layden, "as I like to think of it: Training Camp Heaven. Wofford is 70 miles west of Charlotte on I-85, and presents all the reasons why there is something special about taking the team on the road for camp. Three pristine, Bermuda-grass fields with a stand of tall pines on two sides and a terraced hillside -- where fans sit and watch -- on another. Fans, many of them young boys and girls, lined up along the fence, getting autographs after practice. It's a scene straight out of football's past."

LEE HANNING

After twenty years, Lee Hanning retired from his duties as kicking coach following the 2009 season. Under Hanning's tutelage, two Wofford punters signed National Football League contracts. Jimmy Miner inked a deal with the St. Louis Rams in April 2004 after being a four-time All-SoCon selection. Brandon Kale signed with the Carolina Panthers in 2000.

A World War II veteran, Hanning was a member of the 101st Airborne Division. He parachuted onto Utah Beach in Normandy on D-Day and also participated in the Battle of the Bulge. The 1998 Honorary Letterman by the Wofford College Athletic Hall of Fame, Hanning received a Distinguished Service Award from the Wofford Captain's Council in 1993 and the prestigious Algernon Sidney Sullivan Award in 2010. He and his late wife, Barbara established the Barbara Jean and Lee Hanning Endowed Scholarship at Wofford, which supports student-athletes on the women's golf team. Hanning passed away in October of 2014.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

Since the Terriers moved into Gibbs Stadium for the 1996 season, Wofford has enjoyed a tremendous home field advantage. In the 22 seasons, Wofford has a .729 winning percentage. Also, the Terriers have posted winning home records in 18 of the 22 seasons.

JACOBS BLOCKING TROPHY

Initiated in 1933 by Dr. William P. Jacobs, this award is given annually to the top blockers in the Southern Conference, Southeastern Conference, and the Atlantic Coast Conference. Four Wofford players have been honored with the Jacobs Blocking Trophy. Blocking back Bob Prevatte won the award in 1949 as he helped the Terriers post an 11-1 record and earn a berth in the Cigar Bowl in Tampa, Florida. In 2003, offensive tackle Eric Deutsch received the SoCon's Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the Terriers won the Southern Conference championship. In 2010, offensive guard Pat Illig took home the honor as the team won the SoCon title and finished with a 10-3 mark. All-American offensive guard Nate Page was the recipient of the 2011 award.

LAST LAP

The Last Lap is a Wofford football tradition initiated by former head coach Mike Ayers when he arrived on campus. Following the final practice of the season, the returning players line up in the end zone and watch as their senior teammates make a final lap around the field.

BRETT MASTERS

Masters is second in career tackles for Wofford football and the career home run leader in baseball. A native of Anderson, S.C., he totaled 411 tackles (1985-88), which was surpassed in 203 by Matt Nelson with 452. He also owns two of the three highest single-season tackle totals, including 207 in 1987 when he received all-state, all-district, and All-America honors. Masters slugged 51 home runs during his time on the diamond at Law Field. He held four single-season school records and two career marks at the time of his graduation.

MONTANA

In the Terriers' second trip to the NCAA FCS Playoffs, Wofford faced undefeated Montana at Washington-Grizzly Stadium. Temperature at kickoff was 13 degrees, the lowest ever for a Wofford game. As time expired, the Terriers advanced with a 23-22 victory.

JERRY RICHARDSON

Jerry Richardson came to Wofford in the mid-1950s as an unheralded pass receiver from Fayetteville, N.C. By the time he left to begin his pro career with the Baltimore Colts, the passing combination of Charlie Bradshaw to Jerry Richardson had received nationwide fame. Richardson was an Associated Press Little All-America selection in 1957 and '58. He still holds Wofford's single-game record with 241 receiving yards vs. Newberry in 1956 and is the record holder for touchdown receptions in a season (9 in 1958) and in a career (21). Drafted by the defending world champion Colts, Richardson played two seasons in the NFL, earning Colt Rookie of the Year honors in 1959 and finishing third in the balloting for top NFL rookie. As a senior at Wofford, he scored 72 points on nine touchdowns, 12 extra points and two field goals. Richardson calls his greatest honor being elected team captain in 1958. In 1983, he was chosen to Wofford's All-Time Football team as a receiver. He was the founder of the Carolina Panthers.

RUSHING

Wofford has finished among the top seven schools in the nation in rushing in each of the past 21 years. The Terriers' wingbone offense puts a premium on ball control and keeping the opponent's offense on the boundary. Eight times the Terriers were second in the nation in rushing yards per game, while in 2010 and 2011 they finished first.

CONLEY SNIDOW

When the legendary Phil Dickens left Wofford to become the head coach at Wyoming, his replacement in 1953 was Conley Snidow. Snidow replaced the single wing offense with his innovative new offense, the T-formation. The passing game was opened up but one thing remained the same, the Terriers continued to win games. In 14 years, Snidow's teams had only three losing seasons and a total of 77 victories. At one point during the mid-1950s, the Terriers won nine straight games against Southern Conference opponents. Snidow served as Wofford's head football coach from 1953-66 and was the Terriers' winningest coach with 77 wins at the time of his retirement. He posted a career record of 77-59-4 and introduced the Split-T offense, an attack that would be the rage of major college football 20 years later.

TERRIERS

Wofford's nickname dates back to the early 1910's when Professor E.H. Shuler recalled seeing a terrier named Jack at Wofford baseball games. A cartoon showing a Jack-like dog doing gymnastics appeared in a Wofford Journal about the same time. By 1914 when football resumed after an 11-year absence at Wofford, the nickname Terrier was firmly established for the college's athletic teams. Wofford has had a number of real life mascots including Spike in the mid-50s and Jocko in the early 1960s. Most Wofford Terriers have been Boston Terriers which have a smooth black coat with white markings on the face, neck, chest, legs and feet. They usually pack a muscular 20 pounds on a foot-high frame.

"Magnolia," owned by Leah Harris '05 of Atlanta, Ga., assumed the role of "Blitz III", the official Wofford Terrier mascot, beginning in the 2014 football season.

TERRIER CLUB

The Terrier Club is Wofford's fundraising organization for athletics. Organized in 1946 by a group of interested friends and alumni, the original name was the Eleven Club. It evolved into the present-day Terrier Club and has since grown into an organization that raised $1.9 million in 2016 for scholarship support.

JAMES TRENTINI

An offensive lineman for Wofford, James Trentini '59 became a successful educator and football coach in his native Massachusetts. After he retired from his career in education, he and his wife Mary enjoyed traveling. They were flying to California to visit their daughter Patti when they boarded American Airlines Flight 11 from Boston to Los Angeles on Sept. 11, 2001. That flight was hijacked and crashed into the North Tower of the World Trade Center.

UNIFORMS

Wofford Gold, the color of the Wofford jerseys in the 1950s, came about when a dye manufacturer mismixed some of his colors. Jerseys were dyed and sent out to Wofford before the mistake was discovered. The manufacturers offered to send new jerseys free of charge but head coach Phil Dickens liked the new color and decided to adopt it as his standard gold jersey. The manufacturers put it on the market as Wofford Gold and several large universities used the new shade.

In 2006, SI.com, the website for Sports Illustrated, ranked the ten best uniforms in college football. The Wofford uniform was ranked sixth in the nation and was one of only three FCS teams included on the list. Texas, Michigan, Auburn, Yale and Notre Dame made up the top five.

WILLIE VARNER

A 1952 Wofford graduate, Willie Varner became one of the legendary high school coaches in South Carolina. A native of Spartanburg, Varner was a member of the 1949 Terrier football team that posted an 11-0 record before being upset by Florida State in the 1950 Cigar Bowl. During a long tenure at Woodruff High School, Varner became the second-winningest high school football coach in South Carolina prep history with an all-time record of 383-132-10 in 43 years. His 10 state championships are tied for the most in state history with Summerville's John McKissick.

BEN WOFFORD

Born on October 19, 1780, Benjamin Wofford rode a Methodist circuit as a lay exhorter in 1806 and 1807 in western Kentucky, but soon returned to South Carolina in that year to marry Anna Todd. With the death of her father in 1809, he inherited control of the Todd family farm in the southern part of Spartanburg County. Ordained in 1814, he served as an itinerant for only three years. The life of the traveling minister making it difficult to run a farm, he ceased to be a traveling preacher in 1820.

A year after the death of Anna Todd Wofford in 1835, he married Maria Barron. His business interests and their diminished enthusiasm for rural life led them to move to the village, at the corner of present-day Magnolia and St. John Streets. There he continued to invest conservatively and live simply until his death on December 2, 1850.

Wofford's will provided $100,000 for the establishment of a college for literary, classical, and scientific education in Spartanburg, to be under the control and management of the state's Methodist Conference. Within four years of Benjamin Wofford's death, the trustees he named took the money he bequeathed, secured a charter, bought land, built a college and five houses for professors, hired a faculty, and opened its doors.

JEFF ZOLMAN

Wofford's starting quarterback from 2002-04, Zolman compiled a career record of 26-6 as a starter. He led the Terriers to an undefeated conference record and the 2003 Southern Conference football championship. Zolman also guided the Terriers to two postseason wins in 2003 and the national semifinals of the Football Championship Subdivision.

NCAA COMPLIANCE

The importance of following all NCAA rules and regulations is imperative to maintaining the integrity of Wofford College and intercollegiate athletics. We ask all who are associated with the institutions athletics programs to help the College protect the spirit of competition, the athletics eligibility of our student-athletes and the reputation of the College by adhering to the rules and regulations of the NCAA and by contacting the Compliance Office or the NCAA with all questions. If you have any questions about NCAA rules, please contact Elizabeth Rabb at (864) 597-4090, the Wofford website at woffordterriers.com and click on 'Compliance,' or the NCAA at www.ncaa.org.

What is a Representative of Athletics Interests (Booster/Donor)?

All alumni, friends, and employees of the College are categorized as 'representatives of athletics interest.' The NCAA stipulates that once an individual has been identified as a 'representative' or "booster/donor" he/she retains this status forever even if the individual is no longer associated with the athletics program. Furthermore the NCAA states that it is possible for a person to be a representative of more than one institution at the same time. A representative of athletics interest may not:

- Contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an effort to evaluate a prospect
- Visit the prospect's institution to pick up film or transcripts
- Contact a prospect, his/her parents, legal guardians or spouse on or off campus
- Contact a prospect by telephone or letter
- Make special arrangements to entertain a recruit
- Provide extra benefits to a prospect, student-athlete or the parents, family and/or guardians of the prospects or student-athletes

THE 2018 SEASON

Last season Wofford was 10-3 overall and 7-1 in the Southern Conference to win the championship. The Terriers earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA FCS Playoffs. After a bye in the first round, a home playoff win over Furman put the team into the quarterfinals. Against eventual national champions North Dakota State, the Terriers season ended with a 42-10 loss. Wofford will look to build on that success as they enter the 2018 season. The schedule of eleven home games includes five at Gibbs Stadium and a contest at Wyoming. Among the slate of eight league games, the team will host The Citadel, VMI, ETSU and Mercer. Wofford is returning a total of 11 starters from last season and 49 lettermen overall. Among the 11 returning starters are five on offense, six on defense, and two specialists. In addition, nine other players with starts are returning for the Terriers. There will be a total of 27 newcomers to the team, with 14 on offense, 11 on defense and two specialists.

Josh Conklin begins his first season as head coach. He joins the Terriers after three seasons as the defensive coordinator at Pittsburgh, but also has experience on the Wofford staff as an assistant from 2007-09. The coaching staff sees four new additions, including defensive coordinator Sam Siefkes, while offensive coordinator Wade Lang returns for his 31st season.

OFFENSE

On the offensive side of the ball this season, there will be five returning starters. At quarterback, Joe Newman played in eleven games and had 42 carries for 148 yards and two touchdowns, while completing 8-of-19 passes for 167 yards. Miller Mosley played in all 13 games and had four carries for 25 yards and a touchdown. They are joined by Corey Cooper and freshman Jimmy Weirick.

The backfield will see the all three starters from last season return, including All-American fullback Andre Stoddard. Stoddard led the team with 839 yards on 176 carries in 2017 with 15 touchdowns. He was third in the SoCon in rushing yards and tied for first in touchdowns. Halfbacks Lennox McAfee and Blake Morgan also return. McAfee had 99 carries for 776 yards and six touchdowns, while Morgan added 103 carries for 662 yards and eight touchdowns. Other returners in the backfield with carries from last season include Evan Suggs, Ryan Lovelace and Andy Riazzi, along with Spencer Alverson and Matt McQuilla.

The Terriers will continue to use an efficient passing game to complement the run. Jason Hill is the top returning receiver with 17 catches for 283 yards and two touchdowns last season. The group also includes Cole Cleary, Dorian Lindsey, Brater Gerber, Nyle Grove, Jim Welsh and Tyler Traynham among the returners.

The offensive line returns just one starter to a unit that helped lead the way for the nation's eighth-ranked rushing offense. On the right side of the line, Michael Ralph started all 13 games

RETURNING STAT LEADERS

Top Scorer	Andre Stoddard (90 points)
Top Rusher	Andre Stoddard (825 yards)
Top Passer	Joe Newman (8-of-19, 167 yds)
Top Receiver	Blake Morgan (22-401 yards)
Top Tackler	Mason Alstatt (76)
Top Sacks	Miles Brown (3.0-24)
Top Interceptions	Devin Watson (4)

All-SoCon performer Ross Demmel. Returners added depth to the unit include Ronnie Brooks, Elliott Campbell, Anthony Craig, Zach Epting, Chad Gardner, and Zak Kurz, while six newcomers will be added to the group.

While not exactly linemen or receivers, the tight ends do both in the Terriers' offense. Nick Karas and Garrison Moore both had catches last season and Slayton Wild also returns to the unit.

DEFENSE

The defense has six starters returning this season. Two of those returners are on the defensive line. Miles Brown started all 13 games at either nose tackle or defensive end as he was named All-Southern Conference first team, along with All-America honors. Brown led the team in tackles for loss and sacks last season. Mikel Horton started six games at nose tackle and earned All-Southern Conference second team honors. The experienced group also includes Thad Mangum, Brandon Zamar, Campbell Jackson, Austin Lufkin, and Josh Contee and will be joined by four newcomers.

At linebacker, Datavious Wilson is the lone starter returning. He had 71 total tackles, which ranked fourth on the team. Billy Hinton started two games late in the 2017 season and is projected to start at inside linebacker alongside Wilson. At outside linebacker, Jireh Wilson played in all 13 games last season with four starts. Robbie Armstrong, who started one game, will man the other outside linebacker position. Also returning at linebacker will be Joe Beckett, John Beckley, Brandon Brown, Shaun Moore, Weston Rountree, Rob Saylor and Ryan Titus.

The secondary will be led by three returning starters. Devin Watson started all 13 games at cornerback and earned All-Southern Conference honors as he led the team with four interceptions. Mason Alstatt started at strong safety for all 13 games last season and finished second on the team with 76 tackles. George Gbesele had eleven starts at cornerback with three interceptions. JoJo Tillery looks to start at free safety after the graduation of Malik Rivera. Additional players returning to the secondary include Dominique Lemon, Graham Massey, Dimitri Redwood, Ulysses Strawter, Omari Johnson, Darron Paschal and Donovan Anderson.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The special teams unit returns as a strength for the Terriers. Luke Carter was named All-Southern Conference first team last season as a placekicker as he was 11-of-12 on field goals. Carter also will handle punting after a 42.3 yard average in 2017. Ross Hammond is back as the long snapper for the fourth season. Dawson Henis will back-up at both kicker and punter, while Miller Mosley is returns as the holder. The return game always keeps things exciting, as numerous players can contribute. Lennox McAfee is expected to return punts and kickoffs among others.

JOSH CONKLIN

Head Coach • First Season
Dakota State '03

@COACHCONKLIN

Wofford College announced on Tuesday, January 2, 2018, the hiring of Josh Conklin as head football coach. Conklin, who spent the past three seasons as the defensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh, was an assistant coach at Wofford from 2007-09 working with the secondary.

Conklin has additional experience at Florida International, Tennessee, The Citadel and South Dakota State University, serving as the defensive coordinator at Pitt, Florida International and The Citadel. He has worked with the 4-3, 4-2 and 3-4 defensive packages during his career.

He becomes the 23rd football coach in the college's history, which began playing the sport in 1889.

"Josh is the complete package," said Wofford College Director of Athletics Richard Johnson. "Having worked here as an assistant under (recently retired head coach) Mike Ayers, he has the Wofford DNA we were looking for along with a great depth and breadth of external experience. For the past three seasons as a defensive coordinator in the ACC, he has matched wits with some of the best offensive minds in college football. We are thrilled to have him carry on the legacy of Mike Ayers and Wofford football."

"Our family is very excited to be at Wofford College," said Conklin. "I hope that we can continue the success that Mike Ayers has built. Following in his footsteps is a great honor and we are excited to be coming back to Wofford."

Conklin served as Pitt's defensive coordinator for three seasons. Under Conklin's watch, Pitt has featured one of the most productive pass rushes in the country. The Panthers ranked sixth nationally in sacks in 2016, averaging 3.31 per contest. Pitt compiled 111 sacks the past three seasons.

In 2017, the Panthers ended the season with a 24-14 upset of undefeated and #2 ranked Miami. Pitt had four sacks in the game and held the Hurricanes to 45 rushing yards. Senior cornerback Avonte Maddox was recognized on the All-ACC third team, while junior linebacker Oluwaseun Idowu and junior safety Jordan Whitehead received Honorable Mention All-ACC honors.

Conklin's 2016 unit also boasted lofty national rankings in rush defense (16th, 119.6 yards per game) and defensive touchdowns (eighth, four TDs). The Panthers had a 43-42 win over eventual national champion Clemson in Death Valley to highlight an 8-5 season that culminated in the trip to the Pinstripe Bowl. In his first season as defensive coordinator, Pitt posted an 8-5 record and earned a berth in the Military Bowl.

Defensive end Ejuan Price enjoyed the finest two years of his career playing in Conklin's defense. Price racked up 24.5 sacks over the 2015-16 seasons and was twice selected first team All-ACC. As a senior, he led the conference and ranked second in the country in tackles for loss (1.8 per game) en route to second-team All-America honors. Price was selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the 2017 NFL Draft. In the secondary, safety Jordan Whitehead was an All-ACC selection each of his first two seasons and was the league's 2015 Rookie of the Year.

Conklin joined Pitt after building an impressive resume as FIU's defensive coordinator for two years (2013-14). In his final season, he was nominated for the prestigious Broyles Award after overseeing a unit that ranked first nationally in fumble recoveries (19), second in defensive touchdowns (six), fourth in turnovers gained (33), eighth in turnover margin (plus-11 overall; 0.92 margin per game) and 35th in total defense (363.8 yards per game).

Prior to FIU, Conklin was the safeties coach at the University of Tennessee (2012) and defensive coordinator and safeties coach at The Citadel (2010-11). While at The Citadel, Conklin coached cornerback Cortez Allen, a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2011-15.

Conklin's defenses at The Citadel annually ranked among the best in the Southern Conference. The Bulldogs were especially stingy in scoring defense in 2011, holding their opponents under 20 points in seven of 11 contests (64%).

From 2007-09, Conklin coached the defensive backs at Wofford. He added special teams to his responsibilities in his final season working with the Terriers.

In Conklin's initial two years, Wofford had 33 interceptions. The Terriers led the Southern Conference in 2007 with 20 interceptions and ranked second in 2008 with 13. Wofford advanced to the FCS Playoffs in each of those seasons. In 2007, the Terriers won the second Southern Conference title in school history and led the league in scoring defense. After an historic win at Montana in the first round of the playoffs, the Terriers were defeated in the quarterfinals by Richmond. Cornerback Brian Kemp was named second team All-Southern Conference.

The 2008 season was capped with a loss to James Madison in the first round of the playoffs to end the year at 9-3. Safety Jason Leventis and cornerback Mychael Johnson earned second team All-Southern Conference honors as the team was second in the league in interceptions. While working with the specialists in 2009, punter Chris Tommie was named first team All-Southern Conference with a 43.8 average.

Conklin's coaching career was launched at South Dakota State, where he served as a graduate assistant in 2003 and 2004. He then was promoted to a full-time post with the Jackrabbits, coaching the secondary and special teams in 2005 and 2006. In 2006, SDSU finished 21st in the nation and ranked second in the conference in pass defense.

Conklin is a 2003 graduate of Dakota State University. He was a starting linebacker and Academic All-American for the Trojans. A native of Gillette, Wyoming, Conklin was born June 19, 1979.

In addition to his bachelor's in physical education from DSU, Conklin also earned a master's in sport administration from South Dakota State. He and his wife, Molly, have two children - son Clark and daughter Millie. His brother-in-law, Al Clark III, was a four-year letterman at Wofford and graduated in 2002, while his father-in-law, Al Clark, Jr., was also a four-year football letterman at Wofford and graduated in 1976.

What They Are Saying

"I would like to thank Josh Conklin and his wife, Molly, for their tremendous commitment and contributions to the Pitt football program the past three years. We are all thrilled that Josh has received this opportunity to be the new head coach at Wofford, a place he and his family are very familiar with given his past tenure there. Everyone at Pitt holds Josh in the highest regard as a person, teacher and coach. We know that Wofford will achieve great things under his leadership."

-Pat Narduzzi, Pittsburgh Head Coach

"What an excellent hire for Wofford. Josh Conklin is an outstanding football coach. He is bright, extremely organized and has a tremendous work ethic. His communication skills and football expertise will allow Wofford to continue its excellence both on and off the field."

-Kevin Higgins, Wake Forest assistant head coach and former The Citadel head coach

"I'm excited for Josh, and for Wofford. Josh is a tremendous football coach who possesses great football intelligence and is an excellent communicator and strong leader. He is going to be outstanding for that program."

-Ron Turner, Carolina Panthers offensive analyst, former Florida International head coach

"We are delighted to have the experience and background of Coach Conklin, who knows and understands what is special about Wofford football - success on the field and in the classroom. I am pleased to welcome Josh and his family back to Wofford College."

-Wofford president Dr. Nayef Samhat

FREDDIE BROWN

Wide Receivers
Eighth Season
South Carolina '09
@COACHFB3

Freddie Brown III is entering his eighth season on the staff coaching the wide receivers. His recruiting area is central North Carolina, central Florida and south Florida.

Last season R. J. Taylor was the team leader in receiving with 24 catches for 349 yards and a touchdown. Jason Hill added 17 receptions for 283 yards and a pair of touchdowns. The team averaged 84.2 passing yards per game, an increase of over 20 yards a game over the previous season. The team posted a 10-3 overall record and won the Southern Conference Championship with a 7-1 mark. In 2016, Jason Hill led the wide receivers with 11 catches for 127 yards. Big plays were common, as the average catch was for 13.6 yards. The returners on special teams averaged 21.2 yards per kickoff return and 7.2 yards per punt return.

R.J. Taylor led the team in 2015 with 14 catches for 186 yards. Overall, 14 of the 54 receptions went for 20 or more yards and the average catch was for 14.1 yards. In 2014, Will Irwin led the team with 19 catches for 289 yards and a pair of touchdowns. For the previous two seasons, Jeff Ashley was the team's leading receiver. During the 2013 season, Ashley had 20 catches for 232 yards and a touchdown. In 2012, he had 17 catches for 301 yards and two touchdowns. His longest reception was for 71 yards at South Carolina.

During his first year on the staff, he worked with Brenton Bersin, who is currently a wide receiver with the Carolina Panthers. Bersin led the team with 26 receptions for 445 yards and was tenth in the SoCon in receiving yards per game. In 2010, Brown was an assistant coach at Spartanburg High School.

As a three-year letterman at South Carolina, Brown had 38 catches for 408 yards and a touchdown at wide receiver. In the fall of 2009, he played one season of football at Liberty as a graduate student. In eleven games he had 21 receptions for 204 yards.

At Byrnes High School, he caught 68 passes for 978 yards and 14 touchdowns during his senior season. Brown played in the 2004 North-South All-Star Game. In his two previous seasons at Robinson High School in Charlotte, he caught 86 passes for 1,486 yards and 16 touchdowns. He also played basketball at Robinson High, scoring 1,269 points and earning Conference Player of the Year honors.

Brown graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2009. His father, Freddie Brown, graduated from Wofford in 1991 and also served as an assistant coach at his alma mater.

B.J. CONNOLLY

Tight Ends
Fourth Season
Williams College '84
@CONNOLLY_BJ

After serving for two seasons as the defensive quality control coach for the Terriers, B.J. Connolly joined the staff in February of 2015 as an assistant coach working with the tight ends. The 25-year coaching veteran has experience at the NAIA, NCAA FCS, NCAA Division III, and high school levels. His recruiting area is the Upstate area of South Carolina.

Last season the tight ends combined for six catches for 182 yards. Chandler Gouger paced the group with four catches. The team posted a 10-3 overall record and won the Southern Conference Championship with a 7-1 mark. The Terriers reached the NCAA FCS Quarterfinals for the second straight season.

In 2016, Chandler Gouger led the team in catches with 13 and receiving yards with 205. He had three touchdown catches, which led the squad. In his first season with the tight ends, Zach Muller was second on the team in receptions with seven and he was third in receiving yards with 107.

Prior to assisting at Wofford, Connolly spent four seasons in the local high school ranks. He served as defensive coordinator at Spartanburg High School in 2012, defensive backs and defensive line coach at Chapman High School in 2010 and 2011, and was the defensive backfield coach at Blue Ridge High School in 2009.

He was the defensive line coach and director of football operations at Presbyterian College in 2008. While with the Blue Hose, he coached the Big South Conference's sack leader. Connolly was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Pikeville College in the 2006 season. In 2005, he was a volunteer defensive assistant and video assistant at Wofford.

From 2002-2005, Connolly served in various defensive capacities (defensive coordinator, secondary coach) at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks, California. Connolly's defenses ranked first in their conference in 2002 and second in their conference in 2004. Connolly's defense overall led the conference in total sacks in each of his three years with the program, totaling 91 sacks in 27 games.

Connolly worked at Pomona-Pitzer College in Claremont, California, in differing capacities from 1995-2002. During the time frame he served as the defensive coordinator, secondary coach and special teams coordinator. In 1998 (fourth) and 1999 (18th), his Sagehens defenses ranked in the top 20 in NCAA Division III. Overall, during Connolly's seven years with the Sagehens the program won 65 percent of their games at what is considered one of the top academic institutions in the country.

He has also worked on the football staff at Oberlin College in Oberlin, Ohio (1990-95) and Davidson College in Davidson, N.C. (1986-1989). He was the head baseball coach at Oberlin College from 1994-95.

Connolly is a 1984 graduate of Williams College in Williamstown, Massachusetts, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology. While a Williams, he was a four-year letterman in football and baseball. He also attended graduate school at Syracuse University.

A native of Long Island, New York, Connolly and his wife, Judy, have a daughter, Taylor.

ILIR EMINI

Safeties

Third Season

Knox College '16

@COACHEMINI

Ilir Emini is in his third season at Wofford. In January of 2018 he was named safeties coach after spending the 2017 season as the assistant secondary coach. He recruits Alabama, Kentucky and the Chicago area.

Last season he assisted Rob Greene in coaching the secondary. The total defense was second in the Southern Conference and 26th in the nation. The passing defense ranked fifth in the league and was tied for fourth with 11 interceptions. Devin Watson was named All-Southern Conference first team by the media and coaches, as he led the team with four interceptions. The team posted a 10-3 overall record and won the Southern Conference Championship before falling in the NCAA FCS Playoff quarterfinals.

During the 2016 season he was on staff as the quality control coach and video coordinator. He was responsible for all practice, game and opponent film. He assisted in game preparation by analyzing offensive, defensive and special teams game film and data for scouting statistical analysis. He created various football reports to assist in weekly game plans.

A four-year starter at wide receiver and on special teams at Knox College, he was named All-Conference twice. Emini holds school records for career receptions (233), single season receptions (88) and single game receptions (16). He was voted the team's best receiver three times.

In the spring following his senior season, Emini served as assistant coach working with the quarterbacks and wide receivers. He also spent two summers working with the Yorkville High School football team, primarily with the wide receivers and specialists. He has additional experience as a student athletic trainer at Knox and served as an intern trainer at Acceleration Sports Performance.

He earned his degree from Knox in elementary education, with minors in history and business, in June of 2016. He was named to the Dean's List nine times and earned Academic All-Conference honors four times.

ROB GREENE

Defensive Backs

Second Season

Wofford '14

@COACHGREENE

Rob Greene joined the Wofford coaching staff in July of 2017, working with the cornerbacks. In January of 2018 he was named the defensive backs coach, along with defensive recruiting coordinator duties. He recruits in southeast Georgia, northern Florida, northeast Ohio, and western Pennsylvania.

In his first season on the staff in 2017, the total defense was second in the Southern Conference and 26th in the nation. The passing defense ranked fifth in the league and was tied for fourth with 11 interceptions. Devin Watson was named All-Southern Conference first team by the media and coaches, as he led the team with four interceptions. George Gbese was second on the team and tied for fourth in the league with three interceptions. The team posted a 10-3 overall record and won the Southern Conference Championship before falling in the NCAA FCS Playoff quarterfinals.

Greene was the defensive graduate assistant at Pittsburgh during the 2016 season. In 2016, Pitt was the only school to have wins over two teams that finished in the top 5 of the final College Football Playoff rankings. The Panthers gave No. 2 Clemson--the eventual national champion--its only loss (43-42) and essentially kept No. 5 Penn State out of the playoff field by defeating the Nittany Lions, 42-39.

Greene joined the Panthers after serving as a graduate assistant wide receivers coach in 2015 at North Greenville University, an NCAA Division II program.

From 2010-13, Greene played wide receiver for Wofford, which made three NCAA Division I playoff appearances and won two Southern Conference titles during his career. As a senior in 2013, he played in nine games and was Named to the Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll and the Southern Conference Fall All-Academic Team. He also participated in the 2013 NCAA Career in Sports Forum. In 2012, he played in all 13 games on the season, with four starts. He recorded two tackles against Lincoln (9/8). In the NCAA Playoffs against New Hampshire (12/1), he had one catch for six yards. He was named to the Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll and the Southern Conference Fall All-Academic Team. He played in two games in 2011 and did not see action in 2010 as a true freshman. He was named to the Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll both seasons.

Greene played as a graduate transfer at North Greenville in 2014, helping the Crusaders defeat Shorter University, 42-16, in the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) Victory Bowl. He saw action in eight games with three catches for 14 yards on the season.

A magna cum laude graduate of Wofford, Greene earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics. His mother, Lee Ann, also graduated from Wofford and his father, Michael, played football at Presbyterian College.

A native of Spartanburg, Greene was a four-year letterman at Dorman High School for coach Dave Gutshall. He was team captain his senior season in which team was 14-1 and won the state championship. He had 19 catches for 446 yards and three touchdowns in 2009 after playing quarterback the previous three seasons.

TREY JOHNSON

*Offensive Line
First Season
Wofford '10*

@JOHNSONCW3

A 2010 graduate of Wofford, Trey Johnson returned to campus in January 2018 as the offensive line coach. He recruits the low country of South Carolina, along with western North Carolina.

He spent the 2017 season as the tight ends coach at Eastern New Mexico. The team was 8-2 overall and averaged 32.4 points per game and 442 total yards per game. He was responsible for teaching veer, gap and base blocking schemes. In addition to assisting with the offensive line he was the assistant special teams coach working with kickoff return and punt coverage.

Prior to Eastern New Mexico, Johnson was the offensive line coach at Thomasville High School in 2016. He also spent two seasons at Mount Airy High School, with one season working with the offensive line and one season with the defensive line.

At Wofford, Johnson was a three-year starter at center and was a member of the 2007 and 2010 Southern Conference Champion teams. He also went to the NCAA Playoffs with the Terriers in 2007, 2008 and 2010. He led the team in knockdown blocks in 2008 with 133 and was second in 2010 with 101.

After redshirting as a freshman, in 2007 he played in nine games on the offensive line and on special teams. He was the starting center for all twelve games in 2008, leading the team in knockdown blocks on the season with 133. He was part of an offensive line that allowed only five sacks all season. In 2009 he started eight of eleven games played at center with 72 knockdown blocks. During the 2010 season he was the starting center for eleven games and recorded 101 knockdown blocks. He was named to the Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll and Southern Conference Fall All-Academic Team four times.

Following graduation from Wofford with a degree in history and government, he earned his Juris Doctor in 2014 from the Charleston School of Law.

A 2006 graduate of Mt. Airy High, Johnson helped Mt. Airy to the Northwest I-A conference championship in 2005 with an 11-2 record. He was a three-year starter who helped the Bears to a 30-9 record over that span, while earning all-conference honors on both the offensive and defensive line as a junior and senior. Johnson also lettered in baseball as a pitcher and infielder.

WADE LANG

*Offensive Coordinator/
Quarterbacks
31st Season
Wofford '83*

The 2018 season marks Lang's 31st year at his alma mater and 29th as offensive coordinator running the triple option. Lang primarily recruits in the Pee Dee area of South Carolina, including Florence and Myrtle Beach.

Under Lang's direction, Wofford has consistently ranked among the national leaders in team rushing, total offense and scoring. Wofford has finished either first or second in the Southern Conference in rushing in 19 of the past 21 years and the Terriers have been among the top ten rushing clubs nationally for 21 consecutive seasons.

He has coached some of the most prolific quarterbacks in school history, including All-American Shawn Graves, Travis Wilson, Josh Collier, Ben Widmyer, and Mitch Allen.

Last season, Wofford was 10-3 overall and reached the NCAA FCS quarterfinals for the second straight season. The rushing offense was second in the league and eighth in the nation at 244.8 yards per game. The passing offense added 102.8 yards per game as Brandon Goodson became the first quarterback to throw for over 1,000 yards since 2008. In 2016, the Terriers reached the NCAA FCS quarterfinals with a 10-4 record. The offense was fourth in the nation and second in the Southern Conference at 279.6 yards per game.

In 2012, the Terriers were second in the nation in rushing at 349.69 yards per game. The 4,546 total rushing yards were the most in a single season in school history, topping the mark set in 2011. In 2011, Wofford led the nation in rushing with 364.58 yards per game. Overall, the total offense was seventh in the nation 444.7 yards per game.

The Terriers led the nation in rushing in 2010 with 297.77 yards per game and the team was second in passing efficiency. During the 2009 season, the team was second in the nation in rushing offense. In 2008, the offense had over 400 total yards in all but one game as they averaged 467.17 yards per game to finish second in the nation. The rushing offense was second in the nation with 339.75 yards per game and the scoring offense was sixth in the nation. The passing game led the nation in passing efficiency and quarterback Ben Widmyer set a new school mark in completion percentage.

During the 2007 season, Wofford won the Southern Conference Championship. The team set school records with 5,559 total yards, 444 points, and 295 first downs. The rushing offense averaged 309.69 yards per game, which was second in the nation in the FCS. The 771 carries by the Terriers also led the nation in 2007.

In 2006, the Terriers were first in the SoCon and second in the nation in rushing with an average of 264.5 yards per game. Wofford placed second in the nation in team rushing in 2002 with an average of 342.2 yards per contest. The 2003 Terriers were the SoCon's highest scoring team in league games with 246 points (30.8 per game) in their run to an 8-0 record and the SoCon championship.

After graduating from Wofford with a bachelor of arts degree in 1983, Lang spent five years as an assistant coach at East Tennessee State. He served as a graduate assistant (1983-84), receiver and tight end coach (1985-86), and outside linebacker coach and recruiting coordinator (1987).

Lang played football, basketball and baseball at Plant City (Fla.) High School. He started at quarterback for two years and was a Second Team All-Western Conference selection his senior season.

As a Terrier, he lettered all four years at wingback (1979-82). He earned All-District honors as a junior and senior as he led the team in reception yards. Lang was named an honorable mention All-America his senior year as he co-captained Wofford to an 8-3 record. Lang has several entries in the Wofford record book including the fifth-longest kickoff return in school history with a 95-yard touchdown against Gardner-Webb in 1980. He holds the school record with a 30.0 kickoff return average in 1980 and also holds the season mark with four two-point conversions in 1981.

Wade and his wife, Cheryl, reside in Moore, S.C.

TREY McCRAY

*Outside Linebackers
First Season
Furman '11*

@TREYMCCRAY

Trey McCray joined the staff as outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator in June of 2018. McCray spent the last three seasons as the outside linebackers coach at Gardner-Webb University. He recruits the Charlotte area, along with western South Carolina and eastern and central Tennessee.

During his time with the Runnin' Bulldogs, he also assisted with the special teams. Among the standouts he worked with, Chad Geter earned FCS All-America honors in 2016 after leading the Big South with 118 total tackles. Aaron Cook also earned All-Conference honors in 2016. The pair helped Gardner-Webb rank No. 13 nationally in total defense as juniors, spearheading a unit that fared among the nation's top-25 in seven total defensive categories – including third nationally in third down conversion defense. Geter led the squad with 92 total tackles and finished among the Big South's leaders in sacks and tackles for loss.

McCray joined the Runnin' Bulldogs after spending three seasons coaching the same position at North Greenville University. He is the son of Gardner-Webb head coach Carroll McCray and the nephew of Arizona Cardinals assistant special teams coach Randall McCray.

McCray spent the 2012-2014 seasons coaching outside linebackers at North Greenville University. He handled play-calling duties for the Crusaders' defense for two seasons – which included a 7-5 record and a 42-16 win over Shorter in the 2014 NCCAA Victory Bowl.

One of his players, linebacker Taylor Anderson, earned BSN All-Super Region 2 honorable mention accolades after recording 123 total tackles in 2014. Anderson also earned honorable mention All-America honors from USA College Football and first-team All-NCCAA honors.

In 2013, linebacker Braelen Meredith earned first-team NCCAA All-America honors after pacing the Crusaders' defense with 89 total tackles, 13.0 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks. McCray also coached standout Jonathan Sharpe in 2012, with Sharpe later earning an NFL training camp slot with the Indianapolis Colts.

McCray graduated from Furman in 2011 with a degree in business administration and spent four years with the Paladins' football squad as a tight end under head coach Bobby Lamb. He earned his MBA from North Greenville in 2014.

He played prep football at Rossview (Tenn.) High under coach Brian Bell, earning All-State, All-Region and All-Area honors at defensive end during his senior season. McCray and his wife, Chelsea, have a son Charlie and reside in Greer, S.C.

DANE ROMERO

*Running Backs
Fourth Season
Wofford '09*

@COACHROMERO_18

Dane Romero returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach in the spring of 2015 and is now entering his fourth season working with the halfbacks and fullbacks. In 2018 he added offensive recruiting coordinator responsibilities. He will recruit in southwestern and central Ohio, including Cincinnati, Dayton, and Columbus, along with the area east of Atlanta in Georgia.

Last season the rushing offense was second in the Southern Conference at 244.8 yards per game and was eighth nationally. Fullback Andre Stoddard was named All-Southern Conference first team by the media and second team by the coaches with 825 yards and 15 touchdowns. The 15 touchdowns by Stoddard were tied for the most in the league. Four different running backs had over 100 yards rushing, while five had touchdowns. The team posted a 10-3 overall record and won the Southern Conference Championship with a 7-1 mark. He reached the NCAA FCS Playoffs for the fourth time (two as a player, two as a coach).

In 2016, the Wofford rushing offense was second in the league and fourth in the nation at 279.6 yards per game. Fullback Lorenzo Long led the team, and the Southern Conference, with 106.3 yards per game. His 1,424 rushing yards were the fifth most in a single season in school history. He was named first team All-Southern Conference by the coaches and media, along with being named a third team All-American by the Associated Press. He scored 18 rushing touchdowns and ended his career third in school history with 43 rushing touchdowns. Six different running backs scored touchdowns on the season, while seven had more than 100 rushing yards on the year.

In his first season with the Terriers the rushing offense was second in the Southern Conference and fourth in the nation at 300.2 yards per game. Fullback Lorenzo Long was named second team All-Southern Conference by the coaches and media, as he rushed for 962 yards to finish fourth in the league. His eight rushing touchdowns ranked seventh in the conference. A total of six different running backs for touchdowns during the season.

He began his coaching career at Brevard College, where he worked with the fullbacks in 2009. Prior to returning to Wofford, he was working in private business.

Romero ranks 15th in school history with 1,954 career rushing yards and is fifth in school history with 32 rushing touchdowns. He earned first team All-Southern Conference honors his senior season as he led the league in scoring. He ran for 23 touchdowns, which is second in school history behind Shawn Graves (24). Romero was named a first team All-American by The Sports Network as he posted 1,078 yards on 210 carries in 12 games. As a junior, Romero played in ten games for the Terriers with 41 carries for 360 yards and five touchdowns. He started ten games as a sophomore and was Wofford's fourth-leading rusher with 335 yards on 51 carries.

He initially came to Wofford as a quarterback, earning a backup role along with Ben Widmyer behind Josh Collier as a freshman. He was named SoCon Freshman of the Week following his efforts against Gardner-Webb with nine carries for 110 yards and two touchdowns. Romero ended his freshman year with 181 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 18 carries. He was inducted into the Wofford College Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2014.

Romero earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Wofford in 2009. He also earned a master's degree in special education and teaching. He and his wife, Kristen, have a son, Stone, and a daughter, Whitley.

SAM SIEFKES

*Defensive Coordinator/ILB
First Season*

Wisconsin-Lacrosse '14

@COACHSIEFKES

Sam Siefkes was named the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Wofford in January of 2018. He will recruit north Georgia, Chattanooga and the greater Chicago area.

The 2017 season marked Sam Siefkes' second year at UW-Platteville and as defensive coordinator for the Pioneers. Last season the team was 7-3 overall. The defense allowed only 18.9 points per game and posted three shutouts. In 2016, Sam helped lead UW-Platteville an 8-3 record and a playoff appearance. The season ended with a 32-31 loss to Saint John's (Minn.).

Before going to UW-Platteville, Siefkes served as a graduate assistant defensive coach for University of Wisconsin Badgers. While with the Badgers, he worked directly with defensive coordinator Dave Aranda and the defensive line during practice and team meetings. Aranda is currently the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach/associate head coach at LSU.

Prior to working with the Badgers, he worked with the Florida International University football team in Miami, Florida, along with Wofford head coach Josh Conklin. In addition, he worked at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse from 2012-14. Siefkes coached defensive backs, linebackers, and specialists while with the Eagles.

In addition to coaching, Siefkes has experience in strength and conditioning with the Air Force Academy. Siefkes received a Bachelor of Science in Exercise and Sports Science from University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and a Masters of Science in Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis (Intercollegiate Athletic Administration) from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

ALLEN SMITH

*Defensive Line
First Season*

Wofford '12

@COACHASMITH

After one season at VMI, Allen Smith returned to Wofford as the defensive line coach in January of 2018. He will recruit in the midlands of South Carolina, areas west of Atlanta, Georgia, along with Maryland, District of Columbia and northern Virginia.

Last season as the defensive line coach at VMI, the Keydets had 20 sacks, which was fifth in the SoCon, and 69 tackles for loss. He spent the 2016 season at Duke University serving as a football operations assistant working primarily with the Blue Devil defense. During the 2015 season he was as a graduate assistant coach at Appalachian State, helping the Mountaineers to an 11-2 record and Raycom Media Camellia Bowl championship with a 31-28 victory over Ohio. Appalachian State became the first team to win a bowl game in its first season as a full-fledged member of Division I-A/FBS.

Smith arrived at Appalachian State after serving the 2014 season as an assistant coach at Calhoun County High School in St. Matthews, S.C. In his lone campaign at Calhoun County, he served as special teams coordinator and coached the Saints' outside linebackers, halfbacks and tight ends and helped lead the squad to a 7-3 record. Before joining the coaching ranks, Smith served as a counselor and site coordinator for A&A Youth Community Learning Center in Columbia, S.C., and completed an internship with the Carolina Panthers, focusing on sponsor sales and services, community relations and ticket sales.

Smith was a four-year letterwinner as a defensive end at Wofford from 2009-12. He helped the Terriers to a share of Southern Conference championships in 2010 and 2012, along with three NCAA Division I FCS playoff appearances.

After redshirting as a freshman at Wofford, he played in eight games during the 2009 season. He added eight games, along with one start, in 2010. As a junior he played in all twelve games and during his senior season played in seven games.

He was a three-year letterman at defensive end at Keenan High School. He set a single-season record at Keenan as a senior with 92 tackles and added 11 sacks, 15 tackles for loss, nine blocked kicks and three forced fumbles. He was named an all-area selection along with North/South All-Star honors and named the Region 4-AA and The State Defensive Player of the Year.

A native of Columbia, S.C., Smith graduated from Wofford in 2012 with a degree in business economics.

GIBBS STADIUM

SPARTANBURG, S.C. — Wofford opened the season with a 24-23 win over Furman at Gibbs Stadium. The Terriers were down entering the fourth quarter, but a pair of touchdowns gave Wofford a 24-17 lead. Furman scored with 46 seconds remaining, but the two point conversion attempt was intercepted.

Wofford opens the season 1-0 overall and in the Southern Conference, while the Paladins are 0-1 to being the year. The Terriers were led by Lennox McAfee with 67 rushing yards and a touchdown, while Andre Stoddard had 64 rushing yards and a touchdown. The Paladins were led by Thomas Gordon with five catches for 107 yards, while P.J. Blazejowski was 13-of-24 passing for 224 yards.

The Terriers had the ball to open the game. After two first downs and a conversion of a fourth-and-two, Andre Stoddard scored from 16-yards out for a 7-0 lead at the 9:33 mark. On the first drive by the Paladins, a 20-yard field goal made it a 7-3 game at 4:24 in the first quarter. With the ball back, Luke Carter made a 44-yard field goal for a 10-3 lead at the 12:27 mark of the second quarter.

Furman had a pair of passing first downs to move across midfield. A 30-yard reception by Thomas Gordon gave the Paladins first down at the five. Antonio Wilcox capped the drive with a two-yard touchdown to tie the game at 10-10 with 8:04 left in the second quarter. After a Wofford three-and-out, Furman began on the Terriers 46-yard line. A holding penalty negated a touchdown and then a 33-yard field goal was wide right. The Terriers took over with 2:46 left in the first half. Penalties again prevented the Wofford offense from gaining ground and a three-and-out forced a punt with ninety seconds remaining in the half. The Terriers forced a three-and-out and took over with 33 second on the clock. One play ran out the first half with the score tied at 10.

On the opening drive of the second half, Furman went 75 yards in eight plays and scored on a four yard run by P.J. Blazejowski. With 11:55 on the clock in the third quarter, the Paladins had a 17-10 lead. Wofford went three-and-out and punted on the ensuing drive. Furman then had one first down before punting back to the Terriers. Wofford gained three first downs before having to punt.

After a Furman three-and-out, Wofford had a first down on a pass interference call. Following another first down, the Terriers were faced with a fourth-and-one. Lennox McAfee scored from 15 yards out to tie the game at 17 with 13:53 left in the fourth quarter. Furman had one first down before punting. Wofford had four first downs and had the ball inside the 20-yard line when Chase Nelson fumbled and the ball was recovered by the Paladins at the 10-yard line.

The Wofford defense forced a three-and-out. After the punt, the Terriers took over at the Paladins' 43-yard line. A reception by R.J. Taylor and run by Blake Morgan moved Wofford inside the 20-yard line. A run by Lennox McAfee gave the Terriers first and goal at the two. A one-yard touchdown by Chase Nelson with 2:46 remaining gave Wofford a 24-17 lead. Furman had two first downs before Triston Luke went down the far sideline for a 44-yard touchdown. The two point conversion attempt was intercepted by Malik Rivera and Wofford had a 24-23 lead with 46 seconds remaining. The Terriers ran two plays to run out the clock on the victory.

#10 WOFFORD 28, MERCER 27

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2017

FIVE STAR STADIUM

MACON, Ga. — Down 13 points with nine minutes left in the game, Wofford rallied for a 28-27 win at Mercer on Saturday afternoon at Five Star Stadium. The Terriers scored touchdowns at the 6:18 and 3:34 marks of the fourth quarter and intercepted Mercer twice in the final two minutes for the win.

Wofford opens the season 2-0 overall and in the Southern Conference, while the Bears are 1-1 on the season and 0-1 in league play. The Terriers were led by Lennox McAfee with 99 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries, while Blake Morgan and Andre Stoddard added rushing touchdowns. The defense came up with three interceptions and one fumble recovery. The Bears were led by Avery Ward with 113 receiving yards and Kaelan Riley was 14-of-28 passing for 167 yards.

The Bears returned the opening kickoff 91 yards to the eight-yard line. A seven yard catch by Marquise Irvin gave Mercer a 7-0 lead. Wofford gained one first down before punting. With the ball back, the Bears capped the drive with a 15-yard touchdown reception by Avery Ward for a 14-0 lead. The Terriers had one first down on their next possession, but were forced to punt.

Mercer went three and out. After two first downs, Lennox McAfee went 33-yards down the far sideline for a touchdown. Wofford trailed 14-7 at 14:14 in the second quarter. The Bears gained three first downs before punting. After the teams traded punts, the Bears went for a deep pass on the first play but it was dropped. A three-and-out gave the Terriers the ball at the 25-yard line after the punt. A holding penalty on the first play of the drive by Wofford could not be overcome and the Terriers punted. Kaelan Riley capped the Mercer drive with a one-yard run for a 21-7 lead with 21 seconds left in the first half. The Terriers gained one first down before the half ended.

The Terriers had the ball to open the second half and Lennox McAfee went 57 yards down the near sideline for the touchdown for a 21-14 game. After trading punts, the Bears took over at the 26-yard line but Devin Watson picked off a wobbly pass and Wofford took over at the 24-yard line. On fourth-and-goal from the one, a pass was broken up in the end zone to end the scoring chance.

The Bears added points on a 32-yard field goal to take a 24-14 lead with 14:19 left in the fourth quarter. Deep in their own territory, the Terriers converted a fourth-and-two with a reception by R.J. Taylor. Back-to-back sacks forced Wofford to punt. The Bears returned the punt 51 yards and began the drive at the 26-yard line. They put three points on the board with a 34-yard field goal for a 27-14 advantage with 8:15 remaining.

With the ball back, Blake Morgan then caught a 46-yard pass to move across midfield and Andre Stoddard found the end zone from ten yards out to cut the lead to 27-21 with 6:18 left on the clock. The Bears completed a pass, but the ball was stripped by George Gbese and Wofford took over at the 29-yard line. On fourth-and-goal from the two, Blake Morgan dove at the pylon for a touchdown. Wofford took a 28-27 lead with 3:34 on the clock.

On a long pass by Mercer, Devin Watson got inside the receiver for his second interception of the day. The Terriers were unable to gain a first down and Mercer used their remaining timeouts on the drive, giving the Bears the ball with 1:25 left. After a sack, Terrance Morris made a diving interception and Wofford took over at the 38-yard line with sixty seconds remaining. One knee later the Terriers left Macon with a 28-27 victory.

GIBBS STADIUM

SPARTANBURG, S.C. — On Saturday afternoon, the Wofford College football team was able to overcome mistakes to take a 27-24 win over Gardner-Webb at Gibbs Stadium. The Terriers had two turnovers and had four penalties, including two that negated touchdowns.

Wofford opens the season 3-0 overall, while the Runnin' Bulldogs are 0-4 on the season. The Terriers were led by Andre Stoddard with 91 yards on 16 carries and a pair of touchdowns. Brandon Goodson was 8-of-12 passing for 117 yards and a touchdown. R.J. Taylor had three catches for 72 yards and a touchdown. Gardner-Webb quarterback Tyrell Maxwell had eight carries for 44 yards and completed 20-of-29 passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns.

The Terriers had the ball first and Luke Carter hit a 37-yard field goal to give Wofford a 3-0 lead at 8:11 in the first quarter. The Runnin' Bulldogs went three-and-out and Wofford took over after the punt. However the Terriers also went three-and-out and punted.

With the ball back, Gardner-Webb went three-and-out. Wofford looked to have gained a first down on a pass to Blake Morgan, but it was ruled incomplete and the Terriers punted. The Runnin' Bulldogs put together a twelve play drive that was capped by a 30-yard field goal to tie the game at 3-3 with 9:57 on the clock in the second quarter. The Terriers answered with a twelve play drive of their own that ended with a 30-yard touchdown reception by R.J. Taylor from Brandon Goodson. Wofford had a 10-3 lead at 4:40 in the second quarter.

The Runnin' Bulldogs went three-and-out and punted, with the Terriers taking over at the 43-yard line. A Wofford pitch was fumbled and picked up by Thomas Adams, who returned it 53 yards for a touchdown. The game was tied at ten with 2:39 left in the first half. With the ball back, the Terriers took seven plays to regain the lead when Andre Stoddard scored from two yards out. The Runnin' Bulldogs ran one play before the half ended with the Terriers leading 17-10.

To open the second half, the Runnin' Bulldogs had two first downs before a pass by Tyrell Maxwell was intercepted by George Gbese. Wofford's Andre Stoddard had a rushing first down and then Luke Carter hit a 32-yard field goal for a 20-10 lead at 9:40 in the third quarter. On the next drive by Gardner-Webb, they went 75 yards in 13 plays and scored on a five-yard pass to Ralph Jolly to cut the lead to 20-17 with 3:00 left in the third quarter.

Wofford had a 38-yard reception by R.J. Taylor for a first down and Andre Stoddard went up the middle 26 yards for a touchdown. The Terriers lead was 27-17 with 39 seconds left in the third quarter. The Runnin' Bulldogs had a pair of first downs before punting and Wofford took over at the five-yard line. The Terriers were unable to gain positive yardage and went three-and-out.

Taking over at the 45-yard line, the Runnin' Bulldogs scored on a 23-yard touchdown pass to Willie Jackson IV to cut the lead to 27-24 with 7:45 left in the fourth quarter. With the ball back, Wofford had a pair of first downs to move across midfield. A fumble by Andre Stoddard was recovered by Gardner-Webb with 2:35 on the clock in the fourth quarter. They gained a pair of first downs and then faced fourth-and-long with 1:11 remaining. A 50-yard field goal attempt was short and the Terriers took over. Wofford was able to run out the clock for the win.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2017
BAILEY MEMORIAL STADIUM

CLINTON, S.C. — On Saturday night, Wofford used big plays to come away with a 31-7 win over Presbyterian College at Bailey Memorial Stadium. The Terriers had four plays of over 50 yards and scored the final 17 points of the game.

Wofford opens the season 4-0 overall, while the Blue Hose are 2-3 on the season. The Terriers were led by Blake Morgan with 120 rushing yards and two touchdowns, along with 72 receiving yards. Lennox McAfee added 60 rushing yards and a 75-yard touchdown pass to Jason Hill. The Blue Hose were led by quarterback Ben Cheek, who was 19-of-30 passing for 130 yards.

The Blue Hose had the ball first and gained one first down before punting. With the ball at the six-yard line, Blake Morgan went 94 yards down the near sideline for a touchdown on the first play of the game for the Terriers. Wofford had a 7-0 lead at 12:08 in the first quarter. Presbyterian had one first down on their next possession before punting and then Wofford went three-and-out and punted. The Blue Hose failed to pick up a first down and punted back to the Terriers.

With the ball back, Wofford took eleven plays to cover 80 yards as the drive was capped by a 15-yard run by Andre Stoddard. The Terriers led 14-0 with 22 seconds left in the first quarter. After trading punts, Presbyterian then picked up three first downs to move inside the ten-yard line. A seven-yard touchdown run by Torrance Marable cut the lead to 14-7 with 6:25 left in the second quarter. Wofford then gained one first down before punting back to the Blue Hose with three minutes left in the first half. After a three-and-out, the Terriers took over with 53 seconds remaining at the 36-yard line but time ran out on the half.

To open the second half, Wofford went three-and-out and punted. The Blue Hose had a first down and converted a fourth-and-one, but the play was called back by penalty and Presbyterian punted. Wofford took over at the one yard line and gained a first down. Wofford fumbled, but the ball was recovered by the Terriers for a first down. Brandon Goodson then completed a 72-yard pass to Blake Morgan on third down to give Wofford first-and-goal at the two. The Terriers settled for a 19-yard field goal by Luke Carter for a 17-7 lead with 1:54 left in the third quarter.

On the next drive by the Blue Hose, they went three-and-out and punted. On the first play after the punt, Lennox McAfee ran 52 yards for a first down. Brandon Goodson picked up a first down on a run to the nine-yard line. Blake Morgan capped the drive with a five-yard touchdown run to give Wofford a 24-7 lead with 12:37 left in the fourth quarter. After a 41-yard kickoff return, the Blue Hose gained four first downs to move inside the 10. The Blue Hose fumbled and it went out of bounds just inside the pylon, resulting in a touchback for the Terriers.

The Terriers completed a 75-yard touchdown pass from Lennox McAfee to Jason Hill for a 31-7 lead with 7:34 remaining. Presbyterian was able to pick up two first downs and then converted a fourth-and-three. A throw to the end zone was intercepted by Graham Massey and Wofford ran one play to end the game.

SPARTANBURG, S.C. — The Terriers earned a 35-28 overtime win over Western Carolina on Saturday afternoon at Gibbs Stadium. The Catamounts tied the game at 28 with three minutes remaining. Wofford scored a touchdown to open overtime and then an interception in the end zone secured the win.

Wofford opens the season 5-0 overall and 3-0 in the Southern Conference. Western Carolina is 4-2 on the season and 2-1 in the league. The Terriers were led by Andre Stoddard with 157 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns. The Catamounts were led by Tyrie Adams with 76 rushing yards and a touchdown, while completing 17-of-26 passes for 195 yards and two touchdowns.

The Catamounts had the ball first and picked up a pair of first downs before a Colton Clemons interception at midfield. Wofford gained two first downs, but had to settle for a 21-yard field goal by Luke Carter for a 3-0 lead at 8:33 in the first quarter. With the ball back, WCU scored a touchdown on a 17-yard reception by Jordan Mathis for a 7-3 lead at 6:37 in the first quarter. Wofford went three-and-out and punted, with WCU beginning the drive at the two-yard line.

After trading punts, a pair of tackles for loss forced the Catamounts three-and-out. A seven-yard touchdown run by Blake Morgan gave the Terriers a 10-7 lead with 5:57 on the clock in the second quarter. The Catamounts went three-and-out and punted. On the first play of the ensuing drive, Joe Newman's pitch was tipped and WCU recovered to take over. Tyrie Adams ran for a seven-yard touchdown to give the Catamounts a 14-10 lead with 3:06 remaining in the half. On the next drive by the Terriers, they were forced to punt. WCU began at the 16-yard line, but George Gbese intercepted a pass at midfield with less than a minute remaining in the half. The Terriers added for a 34-yard field goal as time expired in the half.

To open the second half, Wofford had a first down and then a 38-yard run by Blake Morgan to move inside the 20-yard line. On fourth-and-two, the run was short and the Catamounts took over on downs. WCU drove 84 yards in eleven plays, scoring a touchdown on a 38-yrd reception by Terryon Robinson. With 7:42 left in the third quarter, the Catamounts had a 21-13 lead. With the ball back, Andre Stoddard ran 31-yards for a first down. Following two more first downs, Andre Stoddard scored from three yards out. The two point conversion run by Blake Morgan was good to tie the game at 21 with 3:52 on the clock in the third quarter.

The Catamounts 40-yard field goal attempt was short and Wofford took over. Brandon Goodson ran four yards for the touchdown, extending the ball across the goal line. The Terriers had a 28-21 lead at the 7:35 mark of the fourth quarter. WCU had a one-yard run by Donnavan Spencer to tie the game at 28 with 3:06 left in the fourth quarter. Wofford had a pass attempt on fourth-and-five at the 35-yard line was incomplete as time expired.

To begin overtime, Wofford had a first down run by Lennox McAfee. Andre Stoddard had a three-yard touchdown run and Luke Carter made the extra point for a 35-28 lead. The Catamounts started their possession with a sack. On third down, George Gbese intercepted Tyrie Adams in the end zone to end the game.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2017
JOHNSON HAGOOD STADIUM

CHARLESTON, S.C. — A touchdown by Andre Stoddard with 1:10 left in the game gave the Wofford College football team a 20-16 win over The Citadel at Johnson Hagood Stadium on Saturday night. The Terriers used 219 passing yards to overcome a Bulldog defense that held the Wofford running game to just 89 yards.

Wofford opens the season 6-0 overall and 4-0 in the Southern Conference. The Citadel is 3-3 on the season and 1-3 in the league, with a #22 national ranking. The Terriers were led by Brandon Goodson with 219 yards on 11-of-17 passing, while Jason Hill had five catches for 97 yards and a touchdown. The Bulldogs were led by Jordan Black with 55 rushing yards and he was 4-of-9 passing.

The Bulldogs took 16 plays to cover 81 yards on the opening drive of the game, with a seven-yard touchdown run by Dominique Allen for the lead at 7:28 in the first quarter. The Terriers went three-and-out and punted on their first drive of the game. The Bulldogs then went three-and-out and punted back to Wofford. After a first down, penalties and a fumble backed the Terriers up and they punted. The Citadel went three-and-out and punted.

Wofford picked up a pair of first downs on receptions by Jason Hill. A 48-yard pass to Garrison Moore gave the Terriers first-and-goal from the one. Brandon Goodson took it across the goal line to tie the game at 7-7 with 8:24 on the clock in the second quarter. With the ball back, The Citadel picked up six first downs and had first-and-goal from the one. A two-yard touchdown run by Rod Johnson with eleven seconds left in the half gave the Bulldogs a 14-7 lead at the half.

Ellis Pace had a 35-yard kickoff return to open the second half. Wofford then faced a third-and-long when Brandon Goodson spun away from a defender and found Jason Hill for a 59-yard touchdown reception. The game was tied at 14-14 at 13:15 in the third quarter. The Bulldogs went three-and-out and punted. After the punt, Andre Stoddard fumbled on the second play by the Terriers and The Citadel recovered at the 17-yard line. Jordan Black ran towards the goal line but Mason Alstatt forced a fumble that was recovered by Datavious Wilson at the two-yard line. On second down for Wofford, Brandon Goodson was sacked for a safety. The Bulldogs took a 16-14 lead with 8:07 on the clock in the third quarter.

After the free kick, the Bulldogs went three-and-out and punted. Wofford had a first down, then converted a fourth-and-two with a pass to Blake Morgan. The drive stalled and the Terriers punted. With the ball back, the Bulldogs gained one first down before punting. Wofford had a 28-yard reception by R.J. Taylor on third down. A 47-yard field goal attempt by Luke Carter was wide right with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter, which was his first miss of the season. The Bulldogs went three-and-out and punted, followed by a Wofford three-and-out. The Citadel gained only nine yards on their next drive and punted.

The Terriers had a first down reception by Blake Morgan to move across midfield. Chase Nelson added a first down run and Jason Hill caught a first down pass to reach the red zone. Chase Nelson added a rushing first down for first-and-goal from the seven. Andre Stoddard capped the drive with a touchdown run from three yards for a 20-16 lead. The two point conversion attempt was short and Wofford had their first lead of the game with 1:10 left in the fourth quarter. The Bulldogs were unable to pick up a first down and Wofford took over with 21 seconds remaining. The Terriers took a knee for the victory.

GIBBS STADIUM

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Wofford was defeated 24-21 by Samford on Saturday afternoon at Gibbs Stadium. The game was tied at 21 when the Bulldogs kicked a field goal with 1:11 left in the game to take the lead. Wofford drove down the field, but was intercepted in the end zone with six seconds to end the scoring chance.

Wofford opens the season 6-1 overall and 4-1 in the Southern Conference. Samford is 5-2 on the season and 3-1 in the league. The Terriers were led by Joe Newman with 85 rushing yards and a touchdown. Andre Stoddard added 85 rushing yards and a touchdown. The Bulldogs were led by Devlin Hodges, who completed 37-of-57 passes for 427 yards and three touchdowns. Kelvin McKnight and Chris Shelling each had over 100 receiving yards.

The Bulldogs had the ball to open the game and gained one first down. Faced with a fourth-and-one, Samford fumbled and Wofford took over on downs. The Terriers had one first down, but failed to convert a fourth-and-three pass. Samford went three-and-out and punted. After four first downs, Brandon Goodson ran 26 yards to the one-yard line. Chase Nelson capped the 13-play drive with a touchdown for a 7-0 lead at 2:38 in the first quarter.

Samford drove inside the red zone, but Mason Alstatt picked off a pass by Devlin Hodges at the four-yard line. Wofford was unable to gain a first down and punted back to the Bulldogs. Samford put together an eight play drive to move inside the ten, but missed a 27-yard field goal wide right at 9:07 in the second quarter. Wofford took over at the 20 and faced a fourth-and-one, but failed to convert and Samford took over. The Bulldogs had one first down before coming up short on a fourth-and-one. Wofford moved across midfield before having to punt. With 1:23 left in the half, the Bulldogs had three passing first downs. A nine-yard touchdown pass by Devlin Hodges to Kelvin McKnight tied the game at 7-7 with 38 seconds on the clock. Wofford gained one first down before the end of the half.

A long kickoff return by Lennox McAfee gave the Terriers the ball at midfield to open the second half. After a first down, a Terrier fumble was recovered by the Bulldogs. Samford had one first down and then punted. Brandon Goodson had a 36-yard run for a first down. Another first down by Blake Morgan moved the Terriers across midfield, but another fumble was recovered by the Bulldogs. Samford converted the turnover into points on an 11-yard touchdown reception by Chris Shelling for a 14-7 lead at 6:59 in the third quarter.

Wofford had a pair of first downs before having to punt back to the Bulldogs. Samford went three-and-out and punted. The Terriers had two first downs, then converted a fourth-and-one. Andre Stoddard scored from four yards out to tie the game at 14 with 11:28 left in the fourth quarter. Samford drove 75 yard in eight plays and scored on a 23-yard pass from Devlin Hodges to Chris Shelling for a 21-14 lead with 8:23 on the clock in the fourth quarter.

Ellis Pace had a 41-yard kickoff return to begin the next drive by the Terriers. Joe Newman scored from ten yards out and tied the game at 21 with 6:11 left in the fourth quarter. A 27-yard field goal by the Bulldogs gave them a 24-21 lead with 1:28 left in the game. With the ball back, Wofford had four first downs and Lennox McAfee caught a pass to move into the red zone. A pass in the end zone was intercepted by Samford and the Bulldogs took a knee to end the contest.

GREENE STADIUM

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. – In yet another close game, Wofford came up with a defensive stand in the final minute to win 31-24 at East Tennessee State at William Greene Stadium. The Bucs were driving when a stop on fourth-and-one with 42 seconds left gave Wofford the win.

Wofford opens the season 7-1 overall and 5-1 in the Southern Conference. ETSU is 3-5 on the season and 1-4 in the league. The Terriers were led by Andre Stoddard with 107 rushing yards and a touchdown. Lennox McAfee had a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown. The Bucs were led by Austin Herick with 23-of-34 passing for 262 yards and two touchdowns.

The Terriers had the ball to open the game and Wofford failed to convert a fourth-and-seven and ETSU took over on downs. The Bucs went three-and-out and punted. With the ball back, the Terriers drive ended with a 23-yard field goal by Luke Carter for a 3-0 lead at 2:13 in the first quarter. ETSU made a 51-yard field goal to tie the game with 12:34 on the clock in the second quarter. A nine-yard touchdown pass to Lennox McAfee gave Wofford a 10-3 lead at 10:50 in the second quarter. The Bucs went three-and-out. Wofford took over at the 14-yard line and Andre Stoddard gained a first down before being forced to punt. ETSU had a 27-yard touchdown pass reception by Hunter Wick to tie the game at 10-10 with 4:14 left in the second quarter. The Terriers needed only five plays to regain the lead as Lennox McAfee scored on a 48-yard run to make it a 17-10 score with 2:01 on the clock. The Bucs went three-and-out, with Wofford taking over with 50 seconds remaining. The Terriers went three-and-out and ETSU ran out the clock on the first half.

To begin the second half, ETSU had one first down but had to punt on fourth-and-one at midfield. Starting at the 16-yard line, Wofford went three-and-out and punted. The Bucs had a first down, then added 15 yards on a Terrier personal foul. A first down pass moved the ball to the six-yard line and a one-yard run by Matt Thompson tied the game at 17 with 7:28 on the clock in the third quarter. On the next drive by the Terriers, they went three-and-out and punted. The Bucs had third-and-long and Datavious Wilson sacked Austin Herick, forcing a fumble that was picked up by Colton Clemons and returned to the six. Two plays later, Andre Stoddard scored a three-yard touchdown to give Wofford a 24-17 lead at 3:52 in the third quarter.

The Bucs were sacked on first down by Terrance Morris and went three-and-out. After the punt, Wofford took over at the 21-yard line. The Terriers had three first downs and then on a third-and-long, Blake Morgan took the pitch 47 yards down the sideline for a touchdown. With 11:32 left in the fourth quarter, Wofford had a 31-17 lead over the Bucs. ETSU had two big passing first downs and then converted a fourth-and-one at the ten. A six-yard pass to Drake Powell in the back of the end zone cut the lead to 31-24 with 6:16 remaining. With the ball back, Wofford gained one first down before punting with 2:39 on the clock. The Bucs had a pair of passing first downs to move across midfield. Another passing first down, the Bucs had a fourth-and-one with 45 seconds remaining. The running back tripped coming out of the backfield for no gain and Wofford took over on downs. The Terriers took a knee to end the game.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2017

GIBBS STADIUM

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Wofford had a 34-yard field goal in the second overtime against Chattanooga for a 24-21 win at Gibbs Stadium. The Mocs tied the game with a touchdown and two-point conversion with 16 seconds left in regulation. Wofford scored first to open overtime and Chattanooga matched the touchdown. On the first play of the second overtime, Wofford's Devin Watson intercepted a Chattanooga pass. The Terriers then hit a field goal for the victory.

Wofford is 8-1 overall and 6-1 in the Southern Conference. Chattanooga is 2-8 on the season and 2-5 in the league. The Terriers were led by Andre Stoddard with 24 carries for 84 yards and a pair of touchdowns. The Mocs were led by Cole Copeland, who was 27-of-39 passing with two touchdowns.

The Mocs had the ball to open the game and had a 14-play drive that ended with a 20-yard field goal by Victor Ulmo. Chattanooga had a 3-0 lead with 6:45 on the clock in the first quarter. The Terriers went three-and-out and punted. The Mocs then went three-and-out and punted with Wofford taking over at the 35-yard line. After a first down, the Terriers punted. On the first play for the Mocs, a fumble was forced and recovered by Devin Watson. A 14-yard touchdown run by Lennox McAfee gave Wofford a 7-3 lead with 24 seconds left in the first quarter.

With the ball back, the Mocs added a 28-yard field goal for a 7-6 score with 5:56 on the clock in the second quarter. Wofford went three-and-out and punted, while the Mocs followed with a three-and-out. After a first down, the Terriers had a 54-yard completion to Blake Morgan called back by penalty. A punt gave the Mocs the ball with 18 seconds left, but they took a knee to end the first half.

To open the second half, Wofford had to punt. After forcing a Mocs' three-and-out, the Terriers had three first downs before a fourth-and-six pass attempt failed. The Mocs took over at the 27-yard line with 4:43 in the third quarter. After a pair of first downs, a fourth-and-one was converted. A 47-yard field goal attempt by Chattanooga was wide right. With the ball back, a two-yard run by Andre Stoddard for the touchdown gave Wofford a 14-6 lead with 7:44 left in the fourth quarter.

Chattanooga had a 23-yard pass play and a 17-yard run to move to the 25-yard line. A sack brought up fourth-and-long, but the pass reception was short and Wofford took over on downs at the 21-yard line. The Terriers went three-and-out and the rugby punt was partially blocked, giving the Mocs the ball at the 43-yard line. They gained two first downs to move inside the 20-yard line with a minute left. A first down run on a quarterback scramble gave the Mocs a first-and-goal from the six. A touchdown pass to Bingo Morton with 16 seconds left made it 14-12. The two-point conversion was good, tying the game at 14. Wofford took a knee after the kickoff and the teams headed to overtime.

The Mocs won the toss and the Terriers started on offense. Andre Stoddard scored from two yards out and the point after was good for a 21-14 lead. The Mocs then scored on an eleven yard reception by Alphonso Stewart. The point after was good to tie the game at 21. Chattanooga took over on offense and on the first play Devin Watson intercepted. With the ball back on the 25, Wofford gained nine yards and Luke Carter lined up for a 34-yard field goal. After a Mocs' timeout to ice Carter, his attempt was good to win the game 24-21.

2017 GAME RECAPS

#8 WOFFORD 45, VMI 14

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 2017
FOSTER STADIUM

LEXINGTON, Va. — Wofford secured the Southern Conference Championship with a 45-7 win at VMI on Saturday afternoon at Foster Stadium. The Terriers had a 21-7 lead at the half and took advantage of a pair of turnovers in the third quarter to add to the advantage.

Wofford is 9-1 overall and 7-1 in the Southern Conference. VMI ends their season at 0-11 and 0-8 in the league. The Terriers had rushing touchdowns by five different players, including two by Andre Stoddard. The Keydets were held to 80 rushing yards and Reece Udinski threw for 207 yards on 24-of-39 passing.

Both teams went three-and-out and punted on their opening drives. A sack by Miles Brown led to a three-and-out by the Keydets. Lennox McAfee had a 27-yard punt return and Blake Morgan scored a three-yard touchdown for a 7-0 lead with 4:29 left in the first quarter. On the next drive by VMI, they gained two first downs before a pass on a fake punt was incomplete.

Wofford took over at the 47-yard line and Lennox McAfee took it in from four-yards out for a touchdown and a 14-0 lead at 13:46 in the second quarter. A pass by the Keydets was intercepted by Devin Watson on the 44-yard line. Brandon Goodson was sacked twice on the next drive and Wofford had to punt. The Keydets had one first down, but then a fumble was forced by Colton Clemons and recovered by Daryl Vining at the 33-yard line. A first down by Blake Morgan was followed by a first down pass to Chandler Gouger. VMI picked up a first down and then converted a fourth-and-three. They added a fourth-and-four conversion to move inside the 10. An eight yard touchdown pass to Kris Thornton cut the lead to 21-7 with fourteen seconds left in the first half. The Terriers threw a pass to the end zone on the final play of the half that fell incomplete.

The Terriers went three-and-out on the opening possession of the second half. Wofford had a 62-yard pass to Chandler Gouger, who was pushed out of bounds just short of the goal line. Andre Stoddard finished the drive with a one-yard run for a 28-7 lead at 12:06 in the third quarter. The Keydets had two first downs before having to punt back to the Terriers. Andre Stoddard ran for a first down and then Jason Hill caught a 37-yard pass to get the ball to the 20. A 32-yard field goal by Luke Carter pushed the lead to 31-7 at the 4:53 mark of the third quarter. After two first downs by the Keydets, JoJo Tillery grabbed a fumble forced by Ulysses Strawter out of the air and returned it 76 yards. On the next play, Joe Newman scored a touchdown and a 38-7 lead with 1:49 left in the third quarter.

On the next series by the Keydets, Daryl Vining forced and recovered a fumble, knocking the ball free from the receiver. After a first down by Jamison Chapman, Ostin McPherson scored from the one, giving the Terriers a 45-7 lead with 13:08 left in the game. The teams then traded three-and-outs. With the ball back, VMI had three first downs and scored on a 15-yard pass to Kris Thornton with 6:13 on the clock to make it a 45-14 contest. Wofford had a first down run by Miller Mosley before punting. VMI added a pair of first downs before coming up short on fourth down. The Terriers took over with 15 seconds left and took a knee.

#7 WOFFORD 10, SOUTH CAROLINA 31

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 2017
WILLIAMS BRICE STADIUM

COLUMBIA, S.C. — On Saturday afternoon, the Wofford College football team was defeated by South Carolina 31-10 at Williams-Brice Stadium. The Terriers made it a 14-10 game on the first possession of the second half, but the Gamecocks scored the next 17 points to pull away for the win.

Wofford is 9-2 overall and South Carolina is 8-3 on the season. The Terriers were led by Lennox McAfee with 49 rushing yards, while Brandon Goodson was 3-of-6 passing. Jake Bentley led the Gamecocks with 22-of-28 passing for 194 yards and a touchdown, along with two rushing touchdowns.

The Gamecocks had a pair of passing first downs and moved the ball across midfield, but punted after a sack by Terrance Morris. Wofford had a 14 play drive that ended with a 32-yard field goal by Luke Carter for a 3-0 lead at 3:43 in the first quarter. On the next drive by South Carolina, they converted a fourth-and-one at midfield. On fourth-and-two, a pass was incomplete and Wofford took over on downs. On the first play by the Terriers, Brandon Goodson was intercepted by Skai Moore at midfield. After four first downs, Jake Bentley ran it in for a touchdown and South Carolina took a 7-3 lead at 7:37 in the second quarter. Wofford was able to gain one first down before punting. The Gamecocks took over and scored on a 23-yard touchdown pass to Bryan Edwards for a 14-3 lead with 55 seconds left in the first half. Wofford ran two plays before the half ended.

To begin the second half, Lennox McAfee had a 23-yard run for a first down. A first down on a personal foul penalty moved the Terriers across midfield. Lennox McAfee added another first down and a first down run by Blake Morgan had the Terriers in the red zone. On fourth-and-one from the two, the Gamecocks were offside for a first down. Blake Morgan capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run. Wofford trailed 14-10 with 9:23 on the clock in the third quarter. The Gamecocks had two first downs and a then a 30-yard run by A.J. Turner to move inside the ten. Jake Bentley scored from two-yards out for a 21-10 lead at 6:21 in the third. Wofford had one first down and then failed to convert on a fourth-and-one and the Gamecocks took over at the 46-yard line.

The Gamecocks then had a fourth-and-one, which they converted with a Jake Bentley run. A 20-yard run moved the ball inside the red zone. Parker White hit a 27-yard field goal to extend the lead to 24-10 with 13:43 on the clock in the fourth quarter. On the next drive by Wofford, Joe Newman fumbled and the ball was recovered at the 37-yard line by T.J. Brunson. Working with the short field, the Gamecocks had two first downs and scored on a two-yard run by A.J. Turner as they pushed the score to 31-10 with 9:54 left in the fourth quarter.

With the ball back, Lennox McAfee had a 27-yard run for a first down, but then a fumble lost ten yards. Joe Newman found R.J. Taylor to get 17 yards and then Newman had a first down run. Newman was intercepted by Rashad Fenton on third down and the Gamecocks took over with 4:49 left on the clock. South Carolina picked up two first downs and ran out the clock to end the game.

NCAA FCS SECOND ROUND

GIBBS STADIUM

SPARTANBURG, S.C. — Wofford defeated Furman 28-10 on Saturday afternoon at Gibbs Stadium to advance to the NCAA FCS Quarterfinals. The Terriers scored first and took a 14-10 lead into the half. Wofford scored two touchdowns in the second half and held the Paladins scoreless for the win.

Wofford is 10-2 overall and Furman ends the season at 8-5. The Terriers were led by Lennox McAfee with 98 rushing yards, while Blake Morgan scored a pair of touchdowns — one rushing and one receiving. Brandon Goodson was 8-of-11 passing for 88 yards and he added 34 rushing yards. The Paladins were held to only 53 rushing yards, but P.J. Blazewski threw for 257 yards on 18-of-30 passing.

Wofford had the ball first and Blake Morgan capped the drive with a five-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 lead at 9:40 in the first quarter. Furman had two first downs before a fourth-and-one run failed and Wofford took over on downs. On the first play, Brandon Goodson fumbled and it was recovered by the Paladins. Furman tried a 22-yard field goal that was blocked by Dominique Lemon. With the ball back, Wofford went three-and-out and punted. Furman had two first downs and then got on the scoreboard with a 41-yard field goal by Grayson Atkins. The score was 7-3 with 12:35 on the clock in the second quarter. The Terriers had a first down run by Andre Stoddard and then a fourth-and-one, which after a false start penalty forced a Wofford punt.

The Paladins used a 44-yard pass to move to the 20-yard line and on the next play a touchdown pass to Logan McCarter gave Furman a 10-7 lead with 6:52 left in the first half. Chase Nelson had a pair of first downs for the Terriers, but a personal foul penalty stalled the drive and Wofford punted. A Paladin three-and-out gave the Terriers the ball at the 36-yard line with 1:30 remaining in the first half. Two first down passes to R.J. Taylor were followed by a 33-yard touchdown pass to Blake Morgan for a 14-10 lead with 45 seconds on the clock. Furman ran one play to end the half.

To open the second half, Furman gained one first down before punting. Wofford had a first down run by Andre Stoddard before punting. The Paladins then went three-and-out and punted. With the ball back, the Terriers covered 79 yards in twelve plays, including a 24-yard run by Brandon Goodson and a 30-yard run by Lennox McAfee. Chase Nelson capped the drive with a 2-yard touchdown and Wofford had a 21-10 lead with 2:56 on the clock in the third quarter.

The Paladins punted, but a Wofford penalty gave Furman a first down on the play. On fourth-and-four, Deon Preister batted down the pass and the Terriers took over on downs. Wofford had first down passes to Blake Morgan and Jason Hill. A defensive holding call on third down gave the Terriers a first down. After another first down by Blake Morgan, the Terriers lined up for a 20-yard field goal. Holder Miller Mosley kept the ball and ran it in for the touchdown on the fake. Wofford had a 28-10 lead with 5:59 left in the game. Furman gained four first downs and had first-and-goal from the two yard line. After a gain of one, a no gain and incomplete pass brought up fourth-and-one. Antonio Wilcox was stopped for a loss of one by Datavious Wilson and Dominique Lemon to turn the ball over on downs with 3:19 remaining. Wofford took over at the one and a first down by Jamison Chapman enabled the Terriers to run out the clock for the win.

NCAA FCS QUARTERFINALS

FARGODOME

FARGO, N.D. – Wofford's season ended in the NCAA FCS Quarterfinals on Saturday with a 42-10 loss to North Dakota State in the Fargodome. The Terriers scored first, but the Bison scored three touchdowns in the final five minutes of the first half to stake a 35-10 lead. NDSU added a touchdown in the third quarter.

Wofford ends the season at 10-3 overall. NDSU is 12-1 on the season and were the eventual national champions. The Terriers were led by Blake Morgan with 54 rushing yards. The Bison were led by Easton Stick with 11-of-16 passing for 184 yards and three touchdowns, along with one rushing touchdown.

The Bison had the ball first and went three-and-out. After the punt, Wofford faced a fourth-and-two and Blake Morgan picked up the first down with a 38 yard run. Luke Carter capped the drive with a 40-yard field for a 3-0 lead with 9:04 on the clock in the first quarter. On the next drive by the Bison, Connor Wentz caught a 48 yard touchdown pass from Easton Stick for a 7-3 lead at 6:07 in the first. Wofford went three-and-out and punted back to the Bison.

With the ball back, Seth Wilson caught an 18-yard touchdown pass to push the lead to 14-3 with 2:32 on the clock in the first quarter. Wofford had a first down run by Brandon Goodson before having to punt at midfield. After a first down, the Bison fumbled and Colton Clemons recovered at the 22-yard line. Blake Morgan had a rushing first down and on fourth-and-goal from the three Andre Stoddard scored the touchdown. Wofford trailed 14-10 at the 10:31 mark of the second quarter.

The next drive by the Bison began with a 41-yard kickoff return and a 33-yard run. Bruce Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run and a 21-10 lead at the 4:49 mark of the second quarter. On the first play of Wofford's next drive, Blake Morgan fumbled and it was recovered by the Bison's Robbie Grimsley and returned 21 yards to the three-yard line. After a tackle for loss by Mikel Horton, Jeff Illies caught a four-yard touchdown pass for a 28-10 lead with 3:50 left in the first half. Wofford then fumbled on the ensuing kickoff and it was recovered by the Bison at the 32-yard line. After a pair of first downs, Bruce Anderson scored from five yards out to give NDSU a 35-10 lead with 54 seconds left until halftime. Joe Newman fumbled the first snap, but recovered the ball. The Terriers punted with five seconds left and the game went to the half.

Wofford had the ball to open the second half and had one first down before having to punt. The Bison had two first downs and then attempted a 50-yard field goal that was blocked by Brandon Curtis. The Terriers went three-and-out and punted. Ty Brooks had a 30-yard run for the Bison to get to midfield. After a 19-yard first down run, a first down pass moved NDSU inside the ten. Easton Stick ran it in from seven yards out to push the lead to 42-10 with 2:28 left in the third quarter. Wofford had a fourth-and-one converted on a run by Chase Nelson, but the drive stalled and the Terriers punted. The Bison had a first down and then had an apparent touchdown called back. Wofford took over after a punt at the 22-yard line with 9:22 left in the game. A pair of first downs moved the Terriers across midfield, but a fourth-and-eight pass was incomplete and the Bison took over on downs with 5:54 remaining. After two more first downs, the Bison were able to run out the clock on the win.

CHARLES J. BRADSHAW AWARD

One of the highest honors that a student-athlete can receive at Wofford is the Charles Bradshaw Award, which was initiated in 1978 in recognition of Wofford's former All-American quarterback. Bradshaw was also president of the student body in 1959.

The Award is presented only in years when there is a candidate "whose academic, leadership and citizenship contributions at Wofford College best typify the ideals and contributions of Charlie Bradshaw."

FLORIDA STATE 19, WOFFORD 6

Shrine Cigar Bowl • Jan. 2, 1950 • Tampa, Florida

The 1949 Wofford football team completed its regular season with an 11-0 record, before suffering a shocking 19-6 loss to Florida State in the Cigar Bowl.

The Cigar Bowl would be the first-ever bowl game for Florida State. The Terriers did rebound from the upset to the Seminoles to post a 19-14 victory over Auburn in the 1950 season opener.

Under head coach Phil Dickens, the 1949 Wofford football team outscored its opponents by a 353-67 margin. Included in the victory total was a school record 83 points in an 83-13 win over High Point.

The loss also snapped a 23-game unbeaten streak for the Terriers dating back to the 1947 campaign. Wofford opened the 1948 season with a national record five straight ties on the way to a 4-0-5 mark. The Terriers closed the 1947 season with three straight victories.

Among the members of the 1949 team were Allen Clark and Wade Corn, grandfathers of recent Wofford football players Al Clark III and Chase Corn, as well as Willie Varner, who would become a legendary football coach at Woodruff (SC) High School.

1950 CIGAR BOWL

Red Parrish scored twice and Buddy Strauss rushed for 132 yards to give three-touchdown underdog Florida State a 19-6 upset victory over Wofford before a Cigar Bowl record crowd of 14,000 fans at Phillips Stadium in Tampa, FL.

The loss snapped Wofford's 15-game winning streak and 23-game unbeaten run dating back to the 1947 campaign.

The Terriers scored only moments into the contest to take a 6-0 lead. After Bill Thurston blocked a Florida State punt, Vernon Quick recovered the ball at the one-yard line and carried it into the end zone for the Wofford touchdown.

For the balance of the first quarter, Florida State mounted several drives that stalled around midfield. The Terriers then put together their first offensive threat in the second quarter. However, the drive ended with an interception at the Seminole 16-yard line that was promptly returned to the Terrier 20. Shortly after, Parrish scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four-yard run to even the game at 6-6.

Late in the first half, an interference penalty on the Terriers gave Florida State the ball in Wofford territory to set up a go-ahead score as the Seminoles took a 13-6 lead.

The third quarter was a defensive battle with neither team able to mount a serious scoring threat.

In the fourth quarter, a Seminole punt pinned Wofford deep in its own territory. After the Terriers fumbled on their 8-yard line, the Wofford defense utilized a goal-line stand to remain in the contest. Parrish was stopped a foot short of the end zone on fourth down.

Unable to move the ball out of the deep hole, Wofford was forced to punt which gave the Seminoles excellent field position with just minutes remaining. With only seconds showing on the clock, Parrish sliced in from five yards out to seal Florida State's upset win.

TEXAS A&I 48, WOFFORD 7

NAIA Championship Bowl • Dec. 12, 1970 • Greenville, S.C.

Under head coach Jim Brakefield, the 1970 football team won a school record 20 consecutive games en route to a No. 1 national ranking and a berth in the NAIA championship game.

After closing the 1969 campaign with nine straight victories, the Terriers swept through the 1970 regular season with a 10-0 record before defeating West Liberty State in an NAIA semifinal contest. Although Wofford lost to Texas A&I in the national champion game, the Terriers still finished the season with an 11-1 mark and a No. 4 ranking.

All-state quarterback Harold Chandler set school records for passing yards (1,610), completion percentage (59.5), touchdowns (11), and total offense (1,852).

In the 12-6 semifinal win over West Liberty, Bobby Jordan accounted for the Terrier offense with scoring runs of four and 61 yards. Defensively, Dean Lemler tied an NAIA semifinal game record with two interceptions.

Clifford Boyd topped Wofford on the season with 1,022 yards rushing. He became the first Terrier to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Bobby Jordan scored 13 touchdowns as a senior in 1970 to graduate as Wofford's career leader with 36 touchdowns. Skip Corn had a team-high 46 receptions for 700 yards and eight touchdowns.

Ray Monroe supplied good field position for the Terriers with a 25.9 kickoff return average, including a school record 96-yard return against Newberry. Placekicker Randy Bringman set a Wofford mark with 34 consecutive extra-points made.

1970 NAIA CHAMPIONSHIP BOWL

The Terriers found themselves outmanned in the NAIA Championship Bowl as their school record 20-game winning streak came to an end with a 48-7 loss to defending champion Texas A&I before a crowd of 12,625 at Sistine Stadium in Greenville, SC. The usually formidable Terrier offense was held to 54 yards rushing and 100 passing, while the Javelinas totaled 574 yards of offense. Texas A&I took a 21-0 halftime lead and then put the game away with four touchdowns in the third quarter.

"Texas A&I simply played better football and they won on their play," Chandler said. "They have a good team and they played very well this afternoon. We made mistakes and they took advantage of them. They made mistakes and we did not capitalize."

MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE 70, WOFFORD 9

NCAA Division II Playoffs • Nov. 17, 1990 • Clinton, Miss.

Playing in its first-ever NCAA playoff game, Wofford was in the process of stunning the Division II football ranks with its halftime lead over Mississippi College, before a 56-point second-half explosion by the Choctaws ended the Terriers' season.

Mississippi was the defending national champions and No. 2-ranked team entering the contest.

After falling behind 14-3, the Terriers took a 17-14 advantage at the intermission after putting together a pair of 14-play scoring drives that covered 80 and 81 yards, respectively. Keith Green scored from three and two yards out as Wofford had Mississippi on the ropes.

Aaron Allen had a career-high 106 yards on 20 carries to lead the Terriers' ground attack.

Fred McAfee, a future No. 6-round draft choice of the New Orleans Saints, gained 145 of his 182 yards in the second half for the Choctaws.

Aaron Allen rushed for a career-high 106 yards against Mississippi College in 1990.

MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE 28, WOFFORD 15

NCAA Division II Playoffs • Nov. 23, 1991 • Snyder Field

SPARTANBURG — Keven Woodson and Kevin Blackmon had touchdown runs to highlight a 14-point second quarter as Mississippi College defeated Wofford, 28-15, in a first round NCAA Division II playoff game.

It was the second straight year that the Choctaws eliminated the Terriers from postseason play.

Wofford scored first when freshman kicker Brian Porzio made a 21-yard field goal with 6:22 remaining in the opening quarter.

The Terriers battled back from a 28-3 deficit on a 75-yard touchdown strike from Shawn Graves to Darrin Goss and a three-yard halfback option pass on a fourth-and-goal play from Aaron Allen to Todd Arnold.

Wofford failed twice to score inside the Mississippi 10-yard line. The Terriers drove to the three at the close of the first half and were at the 10 with just over three minutes left in the game.

Darrin Goss caught a 75-yard touchdown pass from Shawn Graves against Mississippi College in 1991.

POSTSEASON GAME HISTORY

WOFFORD 31, NORTH CAROLINA A&T 10

NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs • Nov. 29, 2003 • Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG -- Quarterback Jeff Zolman and Southern Conference Freshman of the Year Kevious Johnson both had career-high rushing performances as the SoCon champion Wofford Terriers defeated Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference champion North Carolina A&T, 31-10, in the opening round of the Division I-AA playoffs in Spartanburg, S.C.

The game was played before an estimated crowd of 10,500 at Gibbs Stadium.

All of Wofford's offense came on the ground as the Terriers ran for 370 yards, its second-best effort of the season, against a North Carolina A&T defense that ranked eighth in the nation in rushing defense (97.9 yards per game). Wofford attempted just two passes and both were incomplete.

Zolman had 141 yards and two touchdowns on 12 carries. He had a pair of 44-yard runs in addition to scoring on carries of five and four yards. Johnson had 106 yards on 11 attempts as he had a career-best day for the third time in the last four games.

With the game scoreless in the first quarter and the Aggies (10-3) driving at the Terrier 24, Wofford free safety and SoCon Defensive Player of the Year Matt Nelson made a leaping interception in the end zone for his sixth pick of the season.

The Terriers took a 7-0 lead when they drove 59 yards in eight plays, capped by a J.R. McNair 6-yard scoring run, with 8:27 left in the second quarter. Johnson had a 21-yard gain on the first play of the series.

On the Aggies' ensuing possession, a Teddie Whitaker hit on a Micheaux Hollingsworth run forced a fumble that was recovered by Alex Love at the A&T 20-yard line. Four plays later, Nick Robinson kicked a 31-yard field goal to give Wofford a 10-0 lead with 5:27 left in the first half.

On its final series of the first half, North Carolina A&T drove to the Wofford 15 before Yonnick Matthews missed a 32-yard field goal.

A 44-yard Zolman run on the opening series of the second half keyed a 9-play, 80-yard scoring drive that gave Wofford a 17-0 lead. Zolman scored from five yards out on a 3rd-and-goal rush.

North Carolina A&T answered with a 15-play, 59-yard drive to close within 17-7. Quarterback Orrick Watkins had a 3-yard touchdown run on a 4th-and-goal play with 4:48 to play in the third quarter.

Following a Wofford turnover, the Aggies trimmed their deficit to 17-10 when Matthews kicked a 25-yard field goal with 55 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Terriers responded with a season-long 17-play scoring drive to increase their lead to 24-10 with 9:02 left in the game. Wofford's 85-yard march to the end zone was keyed by a Zolman 4-yard rush on a 4th-and-1 at the Aggie 49-yard line. Zolman then capped the drive with a 4-yard touchdown run.

After Lee Basinger recorded a pair of sacks on North Carolina A&T's next possession, the Terriers took over at the Aggie 48-yard line. A Johnson 31-yard run on the first play of the series set up an 8-yard Corey Dunn touchdown carry as Wofford led 31-10 with 5:54 to play.

The Aggies were held to 85 yards rushing on 48 attempts (1.8 per carry). North Carolina A&T had 176 yards in the air for 261 total.

"I'm very proud of our guys' effort," Wofford coach Mike Ayers said. "Going into the ball game, we knew we were going to be facing a great challenge in A&T."

WOFFORD 34, WESTERN KENTUCKY 17

NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs • Dec. 6, 2003 • Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG -- Wofford quarterback Jeff Zolman rushed for 94 yards and three touchdowns as the Terriers defeated defending national champion Western Kentucky, 34-17, at Gibbs Stadium in Spartanburg, S.C., to advance to the semifinals of the Division I-AA playoffs.

In winning their 12th straight game, the Terriers (12-1) have set a single-season school record for victories.

Western Kentucky (9-4) took a 7-0 lead on the game's opening play as quarterback Justin Haddix hit Shannon Hayes on an 82-yard touchdown pass. The Terriers answered with touchdown drives on their next three series to take a 21-7 lead with 2:58 remaining in the first quarter.

"We played a great team in Western Kentucky," Wofford coach Mike Ayers said. "The kids didn't get down after the first touchdown. We've been a Cinderella all year. The Cinderella story lives. I believe in our kids and I believe in our coaches. Coach (Wade) Lang and coach (Nate) Woody did a great job with the game plan. We stayed consistent, we implemented the game plan, everybody played hard, and it worked."

A Zolman 5-yard scoring run capped an 11-play, 70-yard drive that pulled Wofford within 7-6. On the third play of the Hilltoppers' ensuing series, Jimmy Freland forced a fumble by Haddix that was recovered by Josh Smith at the Western Kentucky 32. Smith was starting in place of Timmy Thrift, Wofford's second-leading tackler with 117 stops, who missed the game due to injury.

Following Smith's recovery, the Terriers drove seven plays in 32 yards to take a 12-7 lead. A 2-point rush by Kevious Johnson increased Wofford's lead to 14-7 with 6:57 left in the first quarter.

Zolman's second touchdown of the day on a 1-yard sneak capped a 48-yard scoring drive that put the Terriers on top 21-7. Zolman had a 28-yard run to key the drive.

The Hilltoppers had a 4th-and-goal at the Wofford 1-yard line in the second quarter. With Western Kentucky set to go for the touchdown, a false start pushed the ball back to the 6-yard line. Matt Lange then kicked a 22-yard field goal with 6:58 left in the first half to cut the Wofford lead to 21-10 at the intermission.

Wofford extended its lead to 27-10 with a season-best 8:05 scoring drive that was capped by a 1-yard Zolman run with 13:32 remaining. It capped a 16-play, 72-yard possession.

Western Kentucky answered with a 79-yard drive with Lerron Moore scoring from a yard out to cut the Terrier lead to 27-17 with 7:30 remaining.

Following a failed onside kick, the Terriers took possession at the Hilltopper 43. With Wofford facing a 4th-and-1 at the Western Kentucky 26, wide receiver Curtis Nash took a pitch on a reverse and raced into the end zone untouched.

McNair had 88 yards rushing while SoCon Freshman of the Year Kevious Johnson added 86 yards as the Terriers ran for 311 yards. Wofford added 20 yards passing on 2-of-4 attempts for 331 in total offense.

Western Kentucky had 345 yards total with 125 on the ground and 220 in the air. Only 263 yards came after the first play. Haddix was 15-of-35 passing and was picked off three times. Justin Franklin, Craig Thomas, and Alex Love had interceptions for Wofford.

DELAWARE 24, WOFFORD 9

NCAA Division I-AA Semifinals • Dec. 13, 2003 • Newark, Delaware

NEWARK, DE — The Wofford football team saw its season come to a close as it fell, 24-9, to Delaware in the Division I-AA national semifinals before a crowd of 14,351 in Newark, Del., and an ESPN2 audience.

The Terriers (12-2), making their first appearance on the national network, close the season with a school record 12 victories. Wofford saw its 12-game winning streak end as it lost for the first time since the Aug. 30 season opener at Air Force. Delaware (14-1) advances to the national championship game against Colgate.

Delaware took a 3-0 lead on its opening series when Brad Shushman kicked a 22-yard field goal. On its next series, the Blue Hens drove to the Terrier 22 before Walter Payton Award finalist Andy Hall was intercepted by Wofford inside linebacker Josh Smith.

The Terriers forced a 3-3 tie at the half when Nick Robinson kicked a career-long 40-yard field goal as time expired. It capped a 17-play, 58-yard drive that consumed 6:44. The key play was a 7-yard rush by Kevious Johnson on a 4th-and-2 at the Delaware 47. Trey Rodgers also had an 11-yard pass to Brian Rice on a 3rd-and-8 at the Wofford 34 and a 6-yard completion to Brandon Berry on a 3rd-and-5 at the Blue Hen 35.

Four-time All-SoCon punter Jimmy Miner did his best with six kicks averaging 46.3 yards. However, the Blue Hens had 56 return yards after the Terriers had surrendered just 80 yards on punt returns for the season entering the game.

After being forced to punt on its first two series of the second half, Delaware took a 10-3 lead when Germaine Bennett scored from two yards out with 3:42 to play in the third quarter. Bennett later added fourth-quarter scoring runs of five and 15 yards.

Blue Hen defensive end Shawn Johnson had 3.5 tackles for loss, including a sack. David Boler keyed the Delaware receiving corps with three catches for 45 yards. With Delaware leading just 10-3 in the fourth quarter, Hall scrambled and found Boler for an 18-yard completion on a 3rd-and-8 at the Wofford 45.

The Terriers reached the end zone on the final play of the game as Rodgers connected with Rice on a 5-yard scoring pass. It capped a 13-play, 83-yard drive. With the Delaware fans rushing the field, the officials called the game and did not let the Terriers attempt the PAT or 2-point conversion.

"We faced an outstanding team," Wofford coach Mike Ayers said. "They are very well coached and play hard. We had opportunities. When you play against a great team like that, you won't get many. We just didn't capitalize."

"We competed hard. That last drive was an example of how our kids kept battling. All season long, we've played great defense. We just got a little worn down today, but kept battling. These guys are a lot like us. They play great defense and control the clock. This will be a great teaching tape for us as coaches and for our players. We had a great season. Some days, you just aren't good enough. We hope to be back next year."

Rodgers was 7-of-14 in the air for 65 yards. SoCon Freshman of the Year Kevious Johnson was the Terriers' top rusher with 49 yards on 13 carries to finish with a team-best 823 yards on the season.

WOFFORD 23, MONTANA 22

NCAA FCS First Round • Nov. 24, 2007 • Washington-Grizzly Stadium

MISSOULA, Montana — Wofford College traveled west and came back home with a 23-22 win over previously undefeated Montana. Wofford will host a quarterfinal game next Saturday at Gibbs Stadium.

Wofford was led by Kevious Johnson with 145 yards rushing on 20 carries. Dane Romero, Andy Strickland and Michael Hobbs had touchdowns, while Patrick Mugan had a field goal. Montana was led by Lex Hilliard with 123 yards on 29 carries.

"I am proud of our players, proud of the staff and we hung together," said head coach Mike Ayers. "The caliber of players and coaches here is something that we really admire. They are fundamentally sound and have no weakness. It was an awesome crowd that was tough and classy. We knew that to win, we were going to need to do it together. The kids kept playing and executing and the perimeter blocking was exceptional. The offense played well, and the defense came up big with limiting them to field goals."

Montana won the opening coin toss and elected to defer to the second half. On the first play from scrimmage for the Terriers, Kevious Johnson fumbled which was recovered by the Grizzlies. The Wofford defense started strong and forced a three-and-out by the Montana offense. On the next drive by the Terriers, the offense gained one first down before Josh Collier was intercepted by Reggie Bradshaw.

The Terriers defense continued to stop the Grizzlies, as Jared McColough came up with a sack and Montana was forced to punt again. The Terriers offense settled down and drove 80 yards in 16 plays and scored on a 31-yard field goal by Patrick Mugan. Wofford took a 3-0 lead with 1:27 left in the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, the Grizzlies were able to tie the game with a 37-yard field goal by Dan Carpenter at 14:45. Back on offense, Wofford was able to put together a nine play drive that was capped by a 3-yard touchdown run by Dane Romero at 10:07.

The Grizzlies scored on their next drive when Dan Carpenter made a 25-yard field goal at 5:51 in the second quarter. Wofford was forced three-and-out on their next possession and punted. Following the punt, Montana scored on a nine yard pass from Cole Bergquist to Dan Beaudin with 24 seconds left in the half for a 13-10 lead.

Montana had the ball to start the second half. After gaining one first down, the Wofford defense held and on a fake punt prevented the first down. Following a first down gained by Josh Collier, the Terriers turned the ball over for the third time in the game when Collier was intercepted by Quinton Jackson.

After the turnover, the Terrier defense once again stepped up to the challenge and after a sack by Seth Goldwire forced a three-and-out. Wofford was able to gain three first downs, but were stopped on a fourth-and-six, turning the ball over on downs.

The Grizzlies drove to the Terriers one-yard line, but had to settle for a 24-yard field goal by Dan Carpenter for a 16-10 lead at 12:59 in the fourth quarter. After the score, Wofford was able to complete the first pass of the day, a 34-yard completion to Andy Strickland at 12:43 in the fourth quarter. The drive continued with a fourth-and-five from the six yard line when Josh Collier found Andy Strickland in the left corner of the endzone for the touchdown. The Terriers took a 17-16 lead with 7:47 left in the game.

The lead was short-lived as Lex Hilliard scored from one-yard out with six minutes to go in the game. The two-point conversion attempt was incomplete, giving Montana a 22-17 lead. Wofford responded with a six yard touchdown run up the middle by Michael Hobbs with only 32 seconds left in the game. The two-point attempt was ruled incomplete, giving the Terriers a 23-22 lead. The Grizzlies still had time, moving the ball to the 30-yard line with four seconds left. The 47-yard attempt by Dan Carpenter was wide left as time expired, giving Wofford the win.

POSTSEASON GAME HISTORY

RICHMOND 21, WOFFORD 10

NCAA FCS Quarterfinals • Dec. 1, 2007 • Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG — Wofford College was defeated 21-10 by the University of Richmond on Saturday night at Gibbs Stadium. Richmond is now 11-2 on the season and will advance in the FCS Playoffs.

Wofford was led by Kevious Johnson with 89 yards on 16 carries and Andy Strickland with 98 yards on six catches. Wofford's lone touchdown was by Michael Hobbs. Richmond was led by Tim Hightower with 88 yards on 23 carries with two touchdowns and Kevin Grayson with eight catches for 92 yards.

"To tell you the truth it is exactly what we expected," said head coach Mike Ayers. "First and foremost Richmond has a quality program. Their kids are just like our guys, they are going to go out, they are going to compete, and do everything they can do to try to get it done. We had concerns with our match-up offensively versus defensively. They did some things that created some problems for us, and then we compounded the problem by making some mistakes; not executing on certain situations. It has been a great year; it has been a great ride. I'm not going to let this one loss take away from what we have accomplished for the long run this season."

Wofford had the opening kickoff, but turned it over on downs after an unsuccessful fourth-and-six play. Richmond drove into Terrier's territory, but with 5:31 left in the first quarter Andrew Howard missed a 34-yard field goal wide right.

The Terriers were then able to drive the ball, but Patrick Mugan missed a 42-yard field goal attempt with 19 seconds remaining in the first quarter. On the next drive by the Spiders, Seth Goldwire forced a fumble that was recovered by Brian Kemp. After the turnover, Wofford drove to the one-yard line, but had to settle for a 22-yard field goal by Patrick Mugan to take a 3-0 lead at 7:47 in the second quarter.

On the next drive by Richmond, Erid Ward found Joe Stewart alone in the back of the endzone for a 10-yard touchdown reception. Richmond took a 7-3 lead with 4:19 left in the second quarter. After the touchdown, Wofford's Josh Collier had a pass intercepted by Michael Ireland and returned to the Terrier's 46-yard line with under three minutes to go in the half. But the Wofford defense held, and the Spiders missed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

The Spiders opened the second half with the ball, and after picking up two first downs, Filmon Dawkins intercepted Eric Ward at the Terrier's ten-yard line. Wofford returned the turnover when a pitch was fumbled and recovered by the Spiders. But on fourth-and-nine, Richmond turned the ball over on downs.

Wofford took over at their own 29-yard line. After three first downs, Jeremy Marshall converted on a fourth-and-two at the Spider's 27-yard line. After a key third-down conversion by Kevious Johnson, Michael Hobbs took it in from one-yard out for the touchdown and a 10-7 lead at 3:34 in the third quarter.

On the next drive by Richmond, Tim Hightower ran it in from one yard out to give the Spiders a 14-10 lead at 11:55 in the fourth quarter. With the ball back, Wofford picked up a first down before they were forced to punt. The snap went over the head of Chris Tommie and the ball was recovered at the one-yard line by the Spiders. On the next play, Tim Hightower went in from one-yard out to take a 21-10 lead with 8:40 left in the fourth quarter.

With the ball back, Wofford was forced three-and-out and punted. The Terrier defense came up with a stop as well, and the Spiders punted after a three-and-out. Wofford had the ball back with 5:48 remaining in the game and were able to drive to the Richmond 14 before turning the ball over on downs. The Spiders gained a first down and were able to run out the clock for a 21-10 victory.

JAMES MADISON 38, WOFFORD 35

NCAA FCS First Round • Nov. 28, 2008 • Bridgeforth Stadium-Zane Showker Field

HARRISONBURG, Va. — Wofford College was defeated 38-35 by James Madison on Saturday afternoon at Bridgeforth Stadium-Zane Showker Field in the opening round of the NCAA Playoffs.

The Terriers are 9-3 on the season and James Madison is 11-1 overall. Wofford was led by Mike Rucker with 107 yards and a touchdown, Dane Romero with 87 yards and four touchdowns, and Ben Widmyer with 98 rushing yards. James Madison was led by quarterback Rodney Landers with 166 yards and a touchdown plus three passing touchdowns.

"We faced a good football team in JMU," said head coach Mike Ayers. "We knew going in that they had an array of weapons. The difference-maker in the game was the quarterback. That guy can do a lot of things and if we had been able to stop him one more time we might have had a shot. That being said, I thought our football team could come up here and be competitive. I felt we could come up here and have our opportunity and we did."

The Dukes had the ball first to open the game, but the Terrier defense forced a three-and-out. After the punt, Wofford was able to put together a nine-play, 78-yard drive capped by a two-yard touchdown run by Dane Romero. The Terriers had a 7-0 lead at the 9:23 mark in the first quarter.

James Madison responded with a 34-yard touchdown run by Eugene Holloman just seven plays later for a 7-7 score at 6:25. Wofford was forced three-and-out on their next possession. With the ball back, the Dukes scored on a 15-yard reception by Rockeed McCarter from Rodney Landers for a 14-7 lead with just 23 seconds left in the first half.

With the ball back, Wofford picked up a fourth-and-three by Mike Rucker then were able to march down the field and Dane Romero scored on an eleven yard touchdown run. The score was tied at 14-14 at 10:48 in the second quarter. James Madison returned the kickoff into Wofford territory and needed only six plays to score on a 27-yard touchdown pass from Rodney Landers to Bosco Williams at 8:01 in the second for a 21-14 lead.

Wofford got the ball back in great field possession after penalty and a 29-yard kickoff return by Mike Rucker, however were forced three-and-out. James Madison got the ball back on the eight-yard line and put together a 13-play drive that used 6:04. The scoring play was a fake ball spike by Rodney Landers, who found Rockeed McCarter just inside the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown with 20 seconds left in the half.

The Terriers opened the second half with a 75-yard scoring drive, with Dane Romero taking a direct snap in from four-yards out for the touchdown. At 11:32 in the third quarter, the score was 28-21 James Madison.

The Dukes were driving when Tommy Irvin intercepted a pass from Rodney Landers at the two-yard line and returned it to the 27-yard line. The Terriers used the ground game to go 73-yard in 16 plays as Dane Romero scored his fourth touchdown of the day on a one-yard run. The score was tied at 28-28 at 1:11 in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, James Madison ended a 55-yard drive with a 24-yard field goal by Dave Stannard to take a 31-28 lead at 11:59. The Terriers got the ball back and picked up two first downs before hitting fourth-and-six. Dane Romero appeared to have gained the first down, however the spot of the ball was inches short. The Dukes got the ball back on downs and put together a drive that was capped by a six-yard touchdown run by Rodney Landers with 3:21 left in the game for a 38-28 lead.

Wofford was not done, as on fourth-and-one from the four, Dane Romero picked up the first and goal. After a sack of Ben Widmyer, Mike Rucker scored on a twelve-yard run to make it a 38-35 game with 1:02 left in the game. The Terriers tried an onside kick, but it was recovered by the Dukes and they ran out the clock for the win.

WOFFORD 17, JACKSONVILLE STATE 14

NCAA FCS Second Round • Dec. 4, 2010 • Burgess-Snow Field

JACKSONVILLE, Ala. — On a cold and overcast day, the Wofford football team defeated Jacksonville State 17-14 in a defensive battle at Burgess-Snow Field. The Terriers advance in the NCAA FCS Playoffs for the second time in the last four years.

The Terriers, ranked sixth in the nation, are 10-2 on the season. The Gamecocks finish at 9-3 overall and were ranked eighth in the nation. The Terriers were led by Eric Breitenstein with 178 rushing yards and two touchdowns. Brenton Bersin added 70 receiving yards. Mike Niam was the leading tackler with 13. The Gamecocks were led by Darius Barksdale with 67 rushing yards and Alan Bonner with 58 receiving yards and a touchdown.

"We knew this was going to be a tough game," said head coach Mike Ayers. "They have some outstanding athletes and are extremely well coached. The physicality of the team was very impressive. We have a group of kids that we knew would get after it and play hard. I felt like the game was one of those that everyone had a piece of the victory. We had some mistakes and we had some situations where we got beat. But the great thing is we were able to fight the fight and play the whole game. Our kids did a great job."

Each team gained two first downs and the punted on the opening drives on the game. With the ball back, the Gamecocks drove down the field, but the 37-yard field goal attempt by James Esco was wide left with 3:28 on the clock in the first quarter.

Wofford was able to put together a six-play drive that went 80 yards as Eric Breitenstein went the final 36-yards up the middle for the touchdown and a 7-0 lead with 33 seconds left in the first half. The Gamecocks then got on the scoreboard after an eleven-play drive with a 40-yard field goal by Griffin Thomas for a 7-3 score at 10:30 in the second quarter.

After trading punts late in the second quarter, Wofford got the ball back with 2:14 left on the clock. Eric Breitenstein ran for a 48-yard gain to get the Terriers deep into Gamecock territory. With five seconds left in the half, Christian Reed hit a 28-yard field goal to take a 10-3 lead at the break.

To open the second half, Wofford failed to convert a fourth-and-one and the Gamecocks took over on the Terriers' 35-yard line. After Jacksonville State picked up a fourth-and-one, Preston Roseboro intercepted Marques Ivory at the goal line. The Terriers missed a pitch and the ball went out the back of the end zone for a safety with 9:58 on the clock in the third quarter.

Following the kickoff by Wofford, the Gamecocks gained two first downs. On fourth-and-one from the 18-yard line, they were stopped by the Wofford defense. The Terriers picked up a first down on a pass to Brenton Bersin, but were forced to punt with 2:21 in the third quarter.

On the next drive by Jacksonville State, the team picked up two first downs and chipped away at the lead with a 35-yard field goal by Griffin Thomas with 13:14 left in the fourth quarter. With the ball back, Wofford picked up several key third downs as they drove to the end zone with a three-yard touchdown run by Eric Breitenstein with 9:14 on the clock.

Jacksonville State picked up a first down and three deep, but the ball hit off of Blake Wylie and bounced up to Jamar Reaves for an interception at the two-yard line. Wofford was punting on fourth down, but an offside call gave the Terriers a first down. After a punt by Wofford, the Gamecocks were able to cap a drive with a six-yard touchdown pass to Alan Bonner with 3:51 on the clock. The point after was missed, giving Wofford a 17-14 lead.

On the final drive of the game, Wofford ran the ball five straight times, gaining a key third-and-three as they ran out the clock.

Wofford had 355 total yards, with 269 on the ground. Jacksonville State had 325 yards, 170 of which were passing. Wofford had the time of possession advantage and was +2 on turnovers. Wofford was 7-of-16 on third downs. Jacksonville State was 5-of-13 on third down.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN 23, WOFFORD 20

NCAA FCS Quarterfinals • December 11, 2010 • Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG, S.C. — In a tale of two halves, the Wofford College football team was defeated 23-20 by Georgia Southern on Saturday afternoon at Gibbs Stadium. The Eagles took advantage of fumbles on the first two drives of the game by the Terriers and built a 20-3 halftime lead. Wofford scored 17 points in the second half, but the Eagles added a field goal in the fourth quarter for the winning margin.

The Terriers end the season at 10-3. The Eagles are 10-4 overall and advance to the semifinals against Delaware. Wofford was led by Eric Breitenstein with 102 yards on 23 carries. Mitch Allen threw for 160 yards and a touchdown, while Brenton Bersin had 99 receiving yards. The Eagles were led by quarterback Jaybo Shaw with 60 rushing yards and 78 passing yards.

On the opening drive of the game, the Terriers drove to the Georgia Southern 20-yard line before a fumbled exchange was recovered by the Eagles. Georgia Southern went 69 yards in nine plays and capped a drive with a 25-yard pass from Jaybo Shaw to Tray Butler for a 7-0 lead at 3:59 in the first quarter. With the ball back, Wofford fumbled on the first play from scrimmage and it was recovered by John Douglas who returned it 20-yards for a touchdown. The Eagles had a 14-0 lead with 3:44 left in the first quarter.

The Terriers went three-and-out on their next series. Georgia Southern was able to add to the lead on their next drive as Adrian Mora hit a 33-yard field goal for a 17-0 advantage with 13:56 on the clock in the second quarter. Wofford went three-and-out again and the Eagles took over at midfield. After a touchdown by Georgia Southern was called back by penalty, a 28-yard field goal attempt went wide right.

Wofford had the ball with 8:01 on the clock in the second quarter and put together a 13-play drive that was capped by a 21-yard field goal by Christian Reed. The Eagles were able to answer as they drove 56 yards in the final minute of the half and took a 20-3 lead with a 21-yard field goal by Adrian Mora.

To open the second half, the Eagles went three-and-out and punted. Wofford picked up two fourth down conversions on their next drive as Mitch Allen found Brenton Bersin for a 37-yard touchdown reception to make it a 20-10 game.

The Wofford defense forced another three-and-out by the Eagles. The Terriers picked up a fourth-and-two with a 22-yard reception by Jeremy Marshall. Despite another fumble, Wofford was able to get points on the board with a 27-yard field goal by Christian Reed for a 20-13 score with 13:07 left in the fourth quarter.

Georgia Southern used a 58-yard kickoff return by Laron Scott to set up a 37-yard field goal by Adrian Mora with 10:43 left in the game for a 23-13 lead. Wofford hit a big play as Brenton Bersin caught a 38-yard pass from Mitch Allen to move the ball to the Eagles' 12-yard line. On fourth-and-one from the three, the Georgia Southern defense held and the Terriers turned the ball over on downs.

With the ball back, the Eagles gained a first down but then Preston Roseboro knocked the ball loose and it was recovered by Alex Goltry and returned 19-yards for a touchdown. After the point after, the score was 23-20 with 5:13 left in the game. Georgia Southern gained two first downs on the next drive and were able to run the clock down to under ten seconds before punting back to Wofford. The Terriers had one play left, but were unable to keep the ball alive and the Wofford season came to an end.

Wofford had 343 total yards, with 211 on the ground. Georgia Southern had 246 yards, 168 of which were rushing. Wofford had the time of possession advantage, but had two lost fumbles. Wofford was 6-of-15 on third downs and 3-of-4 on fourth down. Georgia Southern was 6-of-13 on third down.

POSTSEASON GAME HISTORY

WOFFORD 21, UNI 28

NCAA FCS Second Round • Dec. 3, 2011 • UNI-Dome

CEDAR FALLS, Iowa — In the second round of the NCAA FCS Playoffs, Wofford was defeated 28-21 at the University of Northern Iowa in the UNI-Dome. Three turnovers and penalties were too costly for the Terriers to overcome, despite rushing for 457 yards in the game.

For Wofford, Eric Breitenstein and Mitch Allen each had over 100 rushing yards. Breitenstein had 131 with three touchdowns and Allen had 156 rushing yards. The Panthers were led by quarterback Tirrell Rennie with 95 rushing yards and 7-of-12 passing for 67 yards and two touchdowns.

"We played a really well coached football team in Northern Iowa," said head coach Mike Ayers. "They were a big physical crew and we knew going in that size was a factor but our kids did not blink. They just went out there and played hard. I think offensively we did some great things and we had some situations where our biggest opponent was us in terms of self-destructing in the second half. We got it back together and I think any other group would have waved the white flag. These guys have always been fighters."

The Panthers had the ball to open the game and scored first on a 23-yard touchdown pass from Tirrell Rennie to Jarred Herring. UNI took a 7-0 lead with 12:09 on the clock. Wofford then put together a 16-play drive that took 8:39 off the clock and was capped by a three-yard touchdown run by Eric Breitenstein.

After trading punts, the Panthers were driving when Alvin Scioneaux sacked Tirrell Rennie and forced a fumble that was recovered by Ameet Pall. Wofford was unable to gain a first down and punted with 10:38 on the clock in the second quarter.

Wofford then forced UNI to punt after a three-and-out. Wofford picked up a fourth-and-one at midfield by Mitch Allen and then Eric Breitenstein broke free on a run up the middle for a 46-yard touchdown. The Terriers had a 14-7 lead with 5:45 remaining in the first half. The Panthers punted again after being backed up by an Ameet Pall sack. After a 53-yard punt, Wofford took over at the four-yard line. A 46-yard run up the far sideline by Mitch Allen put the Terriers across midfield. Donovan Johnson converted a fourth-and-six, but Christian Reed's 35-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half was wide right.

To open the second half, Wofford picked up first downs on the first three plays. A pass was completed to Brenton Bersin, but the ball was fumbled and recovered by the Panthers. UNI then was able to turn the turnover into points with a five-yard touchdown pass from Tirrell Rennie to Jarred Herring to tie the game at 14 with 10:21 on the clock in the third quarter.

With the ball back, the Terriers gained four first downs before facing a fourth-and-five, but the pass was incomplete. The Panthers picked up two first downs, and gained another after two personal fouls against Wofford on the same play. UNI had the ball at the two-yard line, but after a 21-yard field goal attempt the Terriers were called for roughing the kicker and the Panthers had a first down inside the five. UNI scored on a one-yard run by David Johnson to take a 21-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff, Stephon Shelton caught the ball in the end zone, but failed to take a knee and the Panthers recovered the ball when it was dropped. Phil Wright jumped on the ball for a touchdown at 14:56 in the fourth quarter for a 28-14 lead. Wofford picked up three first downs, but then on third-and-one a fumbled snap was recovered by the Panthers. UNI gained two first downs before punting back to the Terriers.

Wofford got the ball back with 7:20 left in the fourth quarter. The Terriers were able to cover 88 yards in 15 plays and score a touchdown with two minutes left in the game. Eric Breitenstein took it in from three yards out for a 28-21 score. Wofford tried an onside kick, but it was recovered by the Panthers. UNI tried a 47-yard field goal attempt that was short and Wofford got the ball back with 53 seconds left. A sack on fourth-and-nine ended the Terriers' chances.

WOFFORD 23, NEW HAMPSHIRE 7

NCAA FCS Second Round • Dec. 1, 2012 • Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG, S.C. — Wofford was led by Eric Breitenstein with 247 rushing yards and three touchdowns in a 23-7 win over New Hampshire in the second round of the NCAA FCS Playoffs at Gibbs Stadium.

The Terrier defense held New Hampshire to 238 total yards and had ten tackles for loss, including five sacks, along with two interceptions. The Wildcats were led by Nico Steriti with 51 rushing yards and Sean Goldrich was 17-of-29 passing for 113 yards.

"The team we played was a real good football team," said head coach Mike Ayers. "We played hard and they played hard. They have a great scheme and are used to putting up 35 points every day. Our defense did an unbelievable job as far as stopping them. The difference in the ball game came down to the number of times that we were able to stop them. From an offensive standpoint we had a lot of plays but we not as productive as we needed to be. We got sloppy with the ball and gave them a chance to get back in it, but the defense answered the bell every time."

The Wildcats had the ball to open the game and were forced three-and-out and punted. Wofford then had a fourth-and-one, but Eric Breitenstein converted with a 54-yard touchdown run to take a 7-0 lead with 11:51 on the clock.

New Hampshire and Wofford each traded possession twice before the Wildcats picked up the pace with four first downs before E.J. Speller forced and recovered a fumble by Sean Goldrich. Wofford picked up a first down on a reverse by Will Irwin, but were stopped on a fourth-and-two attempt and New Hampshire took over that the 39-yard line with 11:41 left in the second quarter. After again trading possession, New Hampshire was moving the ball with two first downs, but Alvin Scioneaux picked off a pass that was tipped at the line of scrimmage by Tarek Odom. After gaining four first downs, Eric Breitenstein capped the drive with a six-yard touchdown run. The point after hit the left upright and Wofford had a 13-0 lead with 1:13 left in the first half.

On the next drive by the Wildcats, Mike Niam intercepted Sean

Goldrich with 36 seconds on the clock. The Terriers tried a 34-yard field goal as time expired, but it was wide right. Wofford had a 13-0 lead at the break and were outgaining the Wildcats 297 yards to 128.

To open the second half, Wofford had the ball but Donovan Johnson was hit and fumbled. The fumble was picked up by Cody Muller, who returned it 14-yards for the touchdown. The score was 13-7 with 12:15 left in the third quarter. Wofford answered with a 45-yard run by Eric Breitenstein, and then Breitenstein went 26-yards for his third touchdown of the day. Wofford had a 20-7 lead with 9:58 on the clock.

The Wildcats gained two first downs before a tackle for loss by Mike McCrimon forced a punt. Wofford used a 33-yard run by Brian Kass to set-up a 33-yard field goal by Kasey Redfern. The Terriers led 23-7 with 2:57 left in the third quarter.

With 10:23 remaining in the fourth quarter, Wofford took over but went three-and-out and punted, with the ball downed at the two-yard line. The Wildcats gained four first downs, but a fourth-and-six pass was broken up by James Zotto. Wofford then got the ball back with 4:20 left in the game. On fourth down, the Terriers lined up to punt. Kasey Redfern dropped the ball on the snap, but picked it up and ran for the first down. Brad Nocek added a first down run that enabled the Terriers to take a knee twice to seal the victory.

Wofford had 479 total yards, with 454 on the ground. New Hampshire had 238 total yards, 165 of which were passing. Wofford had a 25 to 17 advantage in first downs. Wofford was 6-of-15 on third downs and 3-of-5 on fourth down. New Hampshire was 8-of-17 on third down and 1-of-3 on fourth down. Each team had four penalties. Wofford had a 35:27 to 24:33 time of possession advantage.

WOFFORD 7, NORTH DAKOTA STATE 14

NCAA FCS Quarterfinals • Dec. 8, 2011 • Fargodome

FARGO, N.D. — Wofford's season came to an end with a 14-7 loss to North Dakota State on Saturday in the Fargodome. The Terriers outgained NDSU in total offense, but were limited to a defensive touchdown in the NCAA FCS quarterfinals. The Bison advanced to host Georgia Southern in the semifinals and defeated Sam Houston State to win the national championship.

The Terriers finished 9-4 on the season. For Wofford, Eric Breitenstein ended his stellar career with 135 yards on 24 carries. The Bison were led by Brock Jensen with 60 rushing yards and 13-of-18 passing for 95 yards and a touchdown.

"I felt that both teams played really hard," said head coach Mike Ayers. "For us it was a situation of lost opportunities. We had two pretty good drives, but ball security jumps up and bites us. We played well enough defensively to keep the game within a score and we fought our tails off to try and get it in there. They did a great job of blocking the field goal. We had guys that put their heart and soul into the game. It was a great game and I have a great deal of respect for North Dakota State."

The Bison had the ball to open the game and drove down the field with five first downs. The drive was capped by a one-yard touchdown run by Sam Ojuri to give NDSU a 7-0 lead with 9:37 on the clock in the first quarter.

On the first drive for the Terriers, Donovan Johnson picked up a first down with a 27-yard run. Brian Kass was reaching for the first down when he had the ball stripped and Cole Jirik recovered the ball for NDSU. The Bison went three and out and punted after a sack by Alvin Scioneaux. Wofford gained one first down before punting back to NDSU.

Starting on the one-yard line after the punt, the Bison gained a first down, but then Blake Wylie intercepted Brock Jensen and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown. The score was tied at 7-7 at 14:06 in the second quarter. On the next drive by NDSU, they gained on rushing first down before punting back to the Terriers.

Wofford was only able to gain one first down before two false start penalties forced a punt. The Bison started at the three-yard line. After one first down, Brock Jensen ran 39 yards for a first down and two pass interference calls moved the Bison inside the 20-yard line. A 16-yard touchdown pass from Brock Jensen to Zach Vraa gave NDSU a 14-7 lead with 1:02 left in the first half. With the ball back, the Terriers gained one first down before the end of the half.

To open the second half, Wofford picked up two first downs. Travis Beck forced a Brian Kass fumble that was recovered by Andre Martin. The Bison gained only one first down before punting the ball back to the Terriers. Wofford went three-and-out and punted. The Bison were driving when James Zotto forced a fumble that was recovered by Stephon Shelton with 2:45 left in the third quarter.

Eric Breitenstein ran 39 yards for a first down to cross midfield. On fourth-and-eight, James Lawson completed a pass to Eric Breitenstein for the first down. Then, on fourth-and-three Brad Nocek took the pitch for a first down. The Terriers attempted a 26-yard field goal, but it was partially blocked and the Bison took over at the 20-yard line with 11:44 left in the game. NDSU gained a first down before punting back to Wofford.

The Terriers opened the drive with a 24-yard pass from James Lawson to Jeff Ashley. Wofford drove inside the 20-yard line, but on fourth-and-three from the seven only gained one yard and turned it over on downs with 3:24 remaining on the clock. The Bison picked up one first down, but punted back to Wofford with only 49 seconds remaining. The Terriers ran out of time with the ball across midfield.

WOFFORD 15, CHARLESTON SOUTHERN 14

NCAA FCS First Round • Nov. 26, 2016 • Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG, S.C. — One point was the difference as the Wofford College football team earned a 15-14 win over Charleston Southern at Gibbs Stadium on Saturday afternoon. Devin Watson had two interceptions for the Terriers in the second half, including one with a minute remaining in the game to secure the win. The Terriers advance in the NCAA FCS Playoffs to face The Citadel next Saturday in Charleston.

Wofford advances with a 9-3 record on the season and #10 Charleston Southern finishes at 7-4 on the season. The Terriers were led by Lorenzo Long with 96 rushing yards and two touchdowns. The Wofford defense came up with 10 tackles for loss and three sacks. The Bucs were led by Darius Hammond with 94 rushing yards, while Shane Bucenell was 9-of-18 passing.

The Terriers had the ball first and went three-and-out and punted. The Bucs were able to gain one first down before punting back to Wofford. After gaining a first down, the Terriers were forced to punt. Charleston Southern moved down the field with four first downs and scored on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Shane Bucenell to Jared Scotland for a 7-0 lead at 1:41 in the first quarter.

On the next drive by Wofford, they gained one first down added a first down on a late hit on the quarterback. On a fourth-and-one, Andre Stoddard picked up a first down. Lorenzo Long added a first down and then on a 24-yard apparent touchdown run, instant replay rule Long down at the six-inch line. Two plays later, Long scored but the point after was wide left. Wofford trailed 7-6 at the 9:09 mark of the second quarter.

The Bucs went three-and-out and punted after a tackle for loss by Devin Watson on third down. Wofford also went three-and-out and punted back to the Bucs. After a three-and-out by Charleston Southern punted and it was blocked by Terrance Morris and recovered at the 2-yard line by Bryce Motes. On fourth-and-inches, instant replay ruled Lorenzo Long did not cross the line and CSU took over on downs.

On third down, Tyler Vaughn tackled Shane Bucenell in the end zone for a safety and an 8-7 lead with just over two minutes left in the half. After the free kick, Wofford went three-and-out and punted. Charleston Southern ran out the clock to end the first half.

To begin the second half, Charleston Southern used a 51-yard run by Darius Hammond to set up first-and-goal. Shane Bucenell scored from two yards out to give CSU a 14-8 lead with 12:15 on the clock in the third quarter. Both teams then went three-and-out and punted twice. Wofford took over with 5:08 on the clock in the third quarter and had a 30-yard pass completion to Dorian Lindsey to move across midfield. Lorenzo Long capped the drive with a 32-yard touchdown run up the middle for a 15-14 lead with 2:32 left in the third quarter.

With the ball back, the Bucs gained three first downs before Devin Watson intercepted Shane Bucenell at the 28-yard line. Wofford was able to gain one first down before punting. The Bucs answered with a first down, but also had to punt. The Terriers could only gain two yards and had to punt on their next drive. CSU had a first down, but then the Wofford defense stepped up with a tackle for loss by Jaleel Green, sack by Dylan Young and a pass break-up by George Gbese to force a punt.

Wofford was unable to pick up a first down and punted with 3:03 left in the fourth quarter. On third down, Devin Watson picked off Shane Bucenell and returned it 47-yards to the 24-yard line with 1:09 on the clock. The Terriers took a knee twice to seal the win.

POSTSEASON GAME HISTORY

WOFFORD 17, THE CITADEL 3

NCAA FCS Second Round • Dec. 3, 2016 • Johnson Hagood Stadium

CHARLESTON, S.C. — On Saturday night, Wofford won 17-3 at The Citadel to advance in the 2016 NCAA FCS Playoffs at Johnson Hagood Stadium. The Citadel scored first with a field goal, but the Terriers scored 17 unanswered points in the second half to earn the victory.

Wofford advances with a 10-3 record on the season and sixth-ranked The Citadel ends the season at 10-2 overall. The Terriers were led by Lorenzo Long with 92 rushing yards, while Joe Newman had 45 rushing yards and a touchdown. Devin Watson sealed the win with a 64-yard interception return for a touchdown with 30 seconds left. The Bulldogs were led by Tyler Renew with 76 rushing yards, while Dominique Allen was 11-of-22 passing.

The Bulldogs had the ball first and gained six first downs to move inside the five yard line, but they had to settle for a 24-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead at 7:25 in the opening quarter. Wofford went three-and-out and punted on their opening possession. The Citadel had a 26-yard pass to move across midfield, but on fourth-and-five turned the ball over on downs and Wofford took over at the 30.

A deep pass by Brandon Goodson was intercepted by Dee Delaney, who returned it 20 yards. On the next play, Lincoln Stewart intercepted Dominique Allen and returned it 21 yards. Brandon Goodson was intercepted on the next play from scrimmage by Dee Delaney, who ran it back 48 yards. The Citadel was unable to gain a first down and then a 44-yard field goal attempt was wide left. After two first downs, the Terriers had to punt.

With the ball back, the Bulldogs had two first downs before punting. Wofford took over at the four and was unable to move the ball and punted. The Bulldogs had two first downs, but back-to-back holding calls made it first and 30. A 27-yard run by Dominique Allen moved the ball to the seven yard line with 16 seconds left in the first half. A 25-yard field goal was wide left with four seconds on the clock. Wofford took a knee to end the half.

To open the second half, Wofford and The Citadel both went three-and-out and punted. On the next drive by Wofford, Brandon Goodson left the game due to an injury and Joe Newman entered the game. Blake Morgan went 44 yards down the sideline for a first down and David Marvin tied the game with a 47-yard field goal with 8:09 on the clock. The Citadel went three-and-out and punted back to the Terriers, but Wofford also went three-and-out. The Citadel punted on fourth down, but a roughing the punter call resulted in a first down. They were unable to gain another first down and punted.

Wofford had a first down pass from Joe Newman to Blake Morgan for a 26-yard gain. After a first down run by Lorenzo Long, the Terriers faced a fourth-and-one. Lorenzo Long picked up two yards for the first down. Joe Newman then went 36-yards on the keeper for a 10-3 lead with 10:28 left in the fourth quarter. The Citadel had a first down, and then converted a fourth-and-one. After another first down, a personal foul on the Terriers gave the Bulldogs first down inside the ten. A 35-yard field goal attempt with 4:23 left hit the right upright and was no good.

Wofford answered with a 43-yard run by Lorenzo Long, but the drive stalled and a 46-yard field goal by David Marvin was no good and The Citadel took over with 2:12 left in the fourth quarter. The Bulldogs gained a pair of first downs, but then Devin Watson picked off Dominique Allen and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown. The PAT was good and the Terriers led 17-3 with 30 seconds remaining. The Bulldogs ran out of time and Wofford earned the win.

WOFFORD 23, YOUNGSTOWN STATE 30

NCAA FCS Quarterfinals • Dec. 10, 2016 • Stambaugh Stadium

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio — Wofford's season came to an end on Saturday afternoon with a 30-23 loss in double overtime to Youngstown State in the NCAA FCS Quarterfinals. The Terriers took a lead with 9:22 left in the game, but a field goal by the Penguins tied it with five minutes remaining. Both teams failed to score in the first overtime and Wofford could not answer a touchdown by YSU in the second overtime.

Wofford ends the season at 10-4 overall. Youngstown State moves to 11-3 and advances to the semifinals. The Terriers, ranked #19, were led by Joe Newman with 125 rushing yards and a touchdown, while Lorenzo Long added a pair of rushing touchdowns. The #12 ranked Penguins were led by Jody Webb with 2143 rushing yards, while Wells Hunter threw for three touchdowns.

The Penguins had the ball first and went three-and-out. The punt was blocked by Mason Alstatt and recovered by R.J. Taylor at the five-yard line. On the third play, Lorenzo Long scored from one yard out. A bad snap on the point after made it a 6-0 lead with 12:11 on the clock. The Penguins gained a pair of first downs after a long kickoff return, but a 43-yard field goal attempt was wide left. The Terriers were limited to one first down before punting.

On the first play of the ensuing drive by the Penguins, Malik Rivera picked off a pass from Hunter Wells and Wofford took over at the 43-yard line. David Marvin hit a 37-yard field goal for a 9-0 lead with 53 seconds left in the first quarter. The Penguins picked up a pair of first downs, but then a sack by Thad Mangum forced a punt. Wofford went three-and-out. On the next drive by the Penguins, they scored on a nine-yard pass to Darien Townsend. The PAT was missed and the score was 9-6 at the 5:48 mark of the second quarter.

Wofford gained one first down before having to punt. After one first down, Hunter Wells found Damoun Patterson for a 45-yard touchdown pass and took a 13-9 advantage with 2:18 left in the first half. Wofford was held to one first down and punted. The Penguins took a knee to send the game to halftime.

To open the first half, Joe Newman took the ball on the first play up the middle for 75 yards and a touchdown. The Terriers had a 16-13 lead with 14:46 in the third quarter. Terrance Morris forced a fumble that was recovered by Tyler Vaughn and the Terriers took over at the 37-yard line. The Terriers then fumbled the ball and the Penguins recovered at the 36-yard line. After two first downs, a 40-yard field goal attempt by the Penguins was blocked by Tyler Vaughn. Wofford went three-and-out and punted. The Penguins drove down the field in ten plays and had a drive capped by a five-yard touchdown catch by Isiah Scott to give YSU a 20-16 lead with 1:33 on the clock in the third quarter.

Wofford answered with a 13-play drive that covered 75 yards and ended with a six-yard touchdown run by Lorenzo Long. After the PAT, the Terriers had a 23-20 lead with 9:22 left in the fourth quarter. The Penguins gained three first downs, but had to settle for a 32-yard field goal to tie the game at 23 with 5:04 on the clock. Wofford had one first down before punting and the Penguins took over at the three-yard line. A three-and-out and punt gave Wofford the ball at the 43-yard line with 46 seconds left. A 53-yard field goal by David Marvin as time expired was short and the game went to overtime.

The Terriers had the ball to begin overtime. They gained one first down, but then were faced with fourth-and-one at the two. The pitch was fumbled and the Penguins took over. On fourth down, a 37-yard field goal was wide right and the game went to a second overtime. The Penguins had the ball first and a two-yard touchdown run by Tevin McCaster and the PAT gave YSU a 30-23 lead. The Terriers were faced with a 4th and 13 and a pass was incomplete to end the game.

FURMAN 10, WOFFORD 28

NCAA FCS Second Round • Dec.2, 2017 •Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG, S.C. —Wofford defeated Furman 28-10 on Saturday afternoon at Gibbs Stadium to advance to the NCAA FCS Quarterfinals. The Terriers scored first and took a 14-10 lead into the half. Wofford scored two touchdowns in the second half and held the Paladins scoreless for the win.

Wofford is 10-2 overall and Furman ends the season at 8-5. The Terriers were led by Lennox McAfee with 98 rushing yards, while Blake Morgan scored a pair of touchdowns — one rushing and one receiving. Brandon Goodson was 8-of-11 passing for 88 yards and he added 34 rushing yards. The Paladins were held to only 53 rushing yards, but P.J. Blazewski threw for 257 yards on 18-of-30 passing.

"We had a team that was ready to play," said head coach Mike Ayers. "Our coaches did a great job of prep and our team came in with the mindset that this wasn't going to be the last time that we played. Going against Furman and having to play them twice was going to be a tough task. The game was a game that, for the most part, we won our fair share on all three phases. I really admired the way that our guys competed. I know tomorrow there will be a lot of bumps and bruises but it was a heck of a win over a heck of a program. I'm proud of our guys and our coaches. We've got a locker room of competitors."

Wofford had the ball first and Blake Morgan capped the drive with a five-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 lead at 9:40 in the first quarter. Furman had two first downs before a fourth-and-one run failed and Wofford took over on downs. On the first play, Brandon Goodson fumbled and it was recovered by the Paladins. Furman tried a 22-yard field goal that was blocked by Dominique Lemon. With the ball back, Wofford went three-and-out and punted. Furman had two first downs and then got on the scoreboard with a 41-yard field goal by Grayson Atkins. The score was 7-3 with 12:35 on the clock in the second quarter. The Terriers had a first down run by Andre Stoddard and then a fourth-and-one, which after a false start penalty forced a Wofford punt.

The Paladins used a 44-yard pass to move to the 20-yard line and on the next play a touchdown pass to Logan McCarter gave Furman a 10-7 lead with 6:52 left in the first half. Chase Nelson had a pair of first downs for the Terriers, but a personal foul penalty stalled the drive and Wofford punted. A Paladin three-and-out gave the Terriers the ball at the 36-yard line with 1:30 remaining in the first half. Two first down passes to R.J. Taylor were followed by a 33-yard touchdown pass to Blake Morgan for a 14-10 lead with 45 seconds on the clock. Furman ran one play to end the half.

To open the second half, Furman gained one first down before punting. Wofford had a first down run by Andre Stoddard before punting. The Paladins then went three-and-out and punted. With the ball back, the Terriers covered 79 yards in twelve plays, including a 24-yard run by Brandon Goodson and a 30-yard run by Lennox McAfee. Chase Nelson capped the drive with a 2-yard touchdown and Wofford had a 21-10 lead with 2:56 on the clock in the third quarter.

The Paladins punted, but a Wofford penalty gave Furman a first down on the play. On fourth-and-four, Deon Preister batted down the pass and the Terriers took over on downs. Wofford had first down passes to Blake Morgan and Jason Hill. A defensive holding call on third down gave the Terriers a first down. After another first down by Blake Morgan, the Terriers lined up for a 20-yard field goal. Holder Miller Mosley kept the ball and ran it in for the touchdown on the fake. Wofford had a 28-10 lead with 5:59 left in the game. Furman gained four first downs and had first-and-goal from the two yard line. After a gain of one, a no gain and incomplete pass brought up fourth-and-one. Antonio Wilcox was stopped for a loss of one by Datavious Wilson and Dominique Lemon to turn the ball over on downs with 3:19 remaining. Wofford took over at the one and a first down by Jamison Chapman enabled the Terriers to run out the clock for the win.

WOFFORD 10, NORTH DAKOTA STATE 42

NCAA FCS Quarterfinals • Dec. 9, 2017 • Fargodome

FARGO, N.D. —Wofford's season ended in the NCAA FCS Quarterfinals on Saturday with a 42-10 loss to North Dakota State in the Fargodome. The Terriers scored first, but the Bison scored three touchdowns in the final five minutes of the first half to stake a 35-10 lead. NDSU added a touchdown in the third quarter and held the Terriers scoreless to advance to the semifinals.

Wofford ends the season at 10-3 overall. NDSU is 12-1 on the season and advance to the semifinals. The Terriers were led by Blake Morgan with 54 rushing yards. The Bison were led by Easton Stick with 11-of-16 passing for 184 yards and three touchdowns, along with one rushing touchdown.

"That was a tough game," said head coach Mike Ayers. "They did what they do better than we did what we do. We knew it was going to be tough and know the history of their team. We understood that they have an outstanding team and outstanding players and they do a great job schematically. We had a chance to still be in the game and then just before half we had a debacle. They put us in a hole that did not allow us to do some things that we like to do. All the credit goes to their team and coaches for an outstanding job. I love my guys. They are great kids, tough and they didn't give up. I just didn't do a good enough job coaching them to get ready for this team and the environment."

The Bison had the ball first and went three-and-out. After the punt, Wofford faced a fourth-and-two and Blake Morgan picked up the first down with a 38 yard run. Luke Carter capped the drive with a 40-yard field for a 3-0 lead with 9:04 on the clock in the first quarter. On the next drive by the Bison, Connor Wentz caught a 48 yard touchdown pass from Easton Stick for a 7-3 lead at 6:07 in the first. Wofford went three-and-out and punted back to the Bison.

With the ball back, Seth Wilson caught an 18-yard touchdown pass to push the lead to 14-3 with 2:32 on the clock in the first quarter. Wofford had a first down run by Brandon Goodson before having to punt at midfield. After a first down, the Bison fumbled and Colton

Clemons recovered at the 22-yard line. Blake Morgan had a rushing first down and on fourth-and-goal from the three Andre Stoddard scored the touchdown. Wofford trailed 14-10 at the 10:31 mark of the second quarter.

The next drive by the Bison began with a 41-yard kickoff return and a 33-yard run. Bruce Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run and a 21-10 lead at the 4:49 mark of the second quarter. On the first play of Wofford's next drive, Blake Morgan fumbled and it was recovered by the Bison's Robbie Grimsley and returned 21 yards to the three-yard line. After a tackle for loss by Mikel Horton, Jeff Illies caught a four-yard touchdown pass for a 28-10 lead with 3:50 left in the first half. Wofford then fumbled on the ensuing kickoff and it was recovered by the Bison at the 32-yard line. After a pair of first downs, Bruce Anderson scored from five yards out to give NDSU a 35-10 lead with 54 seconds left until halftime. Joe Newman fumbled the first snap, but recovered the ball. The Terriers punted with five seconds left and the game went to the half.

Wofford had the ball to open the second half and had one first down before having to punt. The Bison had two first downs and then attempted a 50-yard field goal that was blocked by Brandon Curtis. The Terriers went three-and-out and punted. Ty Brooks had a 30-yard run for the Bison to get to midfield. After a 19-yard first down run, a first down pass moved NDSU inside the ten. Easton Stick ran it in from seven yards out to push the lead to 42-10 with 2:28 left in the third quarter. Wofford had a fourth-and-one converted on a run by Chase Nelson, but the drive stalled and the Terriers punted. The Bison had a first down and then had an apparent touchdown called back. Wofford took over after a punt at the 22-yard line with 9:22 left in the game. A pair of first downs moved the Terriers across midfield, but a fourth-and-eight pass was incomplete and the Bison took over on downs with 5:54 remaining. After two more first downs, the Bison were able to run out the clock on the win.

DR. NAYEF SAMHAT

PRESIDENT

The Wofford College Board of Trustees elected Dr. Nayef H. Samhat as president of the college on Tuesday, May 14, 2013. He began his duties at Wofford on July 1, 2013.

Samhat had served as provost and professor of political science and international studies at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, since 2009.

"We conducted a thorough, national search for the 11th president of Wofford College," said J. Harold Chandler (Class of 1971), chair of the Wofford Board of Trustees.

"Our search committee was led by an able and accomplished individual and its 12 members have done their job in a thoughtful and comprehensive manner. The board of trustees, led by its Human Resources Committee, has completed its review and have voted to accept the mutual recommendation of the Search Committee and the Human Resources Committee in the naming of Dr. Nayef H. Samhat as the next president of Wofford College. We are honored that Dr. Samhat has accepted our call and we are excited and ready to begin our important work together."

Samhat held several positions at Centre College in Danville, Ky., from 1996 to 2009, including associate dean of the college, the Frank B. and Virginia Hower Associate Professor of Government and International Studies, chair of the Division of Social Studies, and the National Endowment for the Humanities Associate coordinator of the Environmental Field Experience Program and an instructor in the Department of Political Science at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., from 1995 to 1996.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in international economics from The George Washington University in Washington, D.C., in 1983, Samhat received his master of international affairs degree from Columbia University in New York City. He received his Ph.D. in political science from Northwestern University, where he also received a minor in comparative political economy.

While at Kenyon, Samhat oversaw a number of major grants, including two from the Mellon Foundation: a Critical Languages and Innovative Pedagogy grant to support post-doctoral teaching fellowships for Russian and Arabic languages, and a grant for the Center for Innovative Pedagogy and The Essentials: Renewing General Education within the Curriculum to enhance the endowment for a previously Mellon-funded Teacher Teaching Teachers grant.

He is currently serving on the NCAA Board of Governors, along with the NCAA Division I Sport Organizational Structure Working Group. He also was chairman of the Southern Conference Council of Presidents in 2015-16.

A native of Detroit, Mich., Samhat is married to Prema Samhat, former director of the Knox Community Hospital Foundation and director of marketing and communications for Knox Community Hospital. They have three daughters, Alia, Jehan, and Leila.

Dr. Samhat traveled with the Terriers to the NCAA FCS Playoff game at North Dakota State.

RICHARD JOHNSON

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Richard Johnson is in his 18th year as director of athletics at Wofford College. The former head basketball coach has been an instrumental figure on campus for over 30 years.

Johnson officially began his new duties on December 3, 2001. In 17 years as head basketball coach at Wofford (1985-2002), Johnson had a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who completed their eligibility under him. He was the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' five seasons of league play under him. His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-2000 campaign. During his Wofford coaching tenure, Johnson guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I status in 1995 and the Southern Conference in 1997.

A 1976 graduate of The Citadel, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as a basketball assistant at his alma mater under legendary coach Les Robinson. Johnson also holds an MBA from The Citadel.

Over the past several years as athletic director, he also has been a driving force behind the development of several facility projects. Russell C. King Field and Switzer Stadium returned baseball to campus in 2003. The Richardson Building was renovated in 2008 and 2018, while the Joe E. Taylor Athletic Building and a golf practice facility were completed in 2009. Wofford completed the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium, a 3,500 seat basketball arena, in September of 2017.

Johnson has also been responsible for the growth of the athletic endowment to a current level of over $41 million, with a long-term goal of endowing all scholarships in the department. He recently concluded service on the NCAA's Division I Football Championship Committee and the FCS ADA Executive Committee, while also serving on NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Rules Committee. In June of 2015, he was named Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

Johnson and his wife Carol, have two daughters, Lindsay and Lauren, and a son, Rich, all three of whom are Wofford graduates. The Johnsons also have five grandchildren. Lindsay and Brad Lowry are the parents of Louisa and Brady Lowry, while Lauren and Dr. Reece McWilliams are the parents of Mac, Walker, and James McWilliams.

DR. JAMEICA HILL

FACULTY ATHLETIC REP.

Dr. Jameica Hill, Professor and Chair of the Chemistry Department, is in her 13th year as the Faculty Athletic Representative (FAR). Dr. Hill represents Wofford to the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Southern Conference. She is responsible for certifying the eligibility of student-athletes and assuring integrity in the eligibility process. In addition to supervising athletics policies, the FAR also serves as a liaison between the faculty and the student athletes, looking out for their individual well-being with regard to academics and athletics. She served as the President of the Southern Conference in the 2017-18 academic year.

Hill, a native of Due West, S.C. and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, earned her Ph.D. degree in inorganic chemistry at Clemson University, where she was a Graduate Teaching Assistant of the Year. She received Wofford's 1995 Martin Luther King Jr. Humanitarian Award and was also an associate director for a summer science program that was funded by a grant from the Howard Hughes Medical Center.

Hill's interest in athletics has been a lifelong one. Her father was a high school coach, and she participated in many different sports (including being named a SC All-State point guard and playing in the North/South game).

A 1988 graduate of Wofford, Hill was a cheerleader for the football and basketball teams as a student. Her husband, Jason Hill '89, is a former Wofford quarterback and assistant coach. Their daughter Shelby recently graduated from Clemson University, while their son Jason is on the football team at Wofford.

MARK LINE

DEPUTY ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Mark Line has been a leader on campus for over 30 years, first as the baseball coach and then as an administrator. He joined the athletic department administrative staff in July 2003 in the role of associate athletic director for internal operations and sports programs. He was promoted to senior associate athletic director in 2012 and was named the Deputy Athletic Director in March of 2017. Among his myriad of duties, Line supervises the Olympic sports while also overseeing the department's budget and serving as liaison to the Carolina Panthers and several on-campus groups and committees.

A 1977 graduate of Erskine, Line posted a 210-158 record (.571) in 10 years as the Terriers baseball coach (1986-95). He received District Coach of the Year honors in his second season as the 1987 squad put together as a 23-11 mark. Wofford then set a single-season school record for victories the following campaign with a 27-12 record. It marked the first time Wofford qualified for postseason play in consecutive seasons. Line's 1991 team established another Terrier mark for wins with a 30-9 record.

Line was selected as a 2004 inductee into Wofford's Athletic Hall of Fame. The first-base dugout at Russell C. King Field, the Terriers' on-campus baseball facility, is named in his honor.

Line has served as chairman of the physical education department since 1988. Following the 1995 season, Line accepted a role as associate dean of students in the Wofford student affairs office. He worked with volunteer services, Bonner Scholars, the campus judicial system and a host of other activities involving campus life.

Line and his wife, Pam, have two children: Alyse Worley, a 2010 graduate of Wofford, and Sam, a 2014 graduate of Emory and Henry College. Alyse and her husband Mitch live in Charleston, while Sam and his wife Meg reside in Jacksonville, Florida.

TERRI LEWITT

SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD FOR DEVELOPMENT

Terri Lewitt is in her 34th year as a member of the Wofford athletic department. Lewitt's main duties as senior associate athletic director for development involve a dual role as liaison between the athletic and development offices.

She also chairs, along with the Terrier Club president, many of the events and activities administered by the Terrier Club and its board of directors, including the Terrier Ball.

After coming to the college as an administrative assistant in March 1985, Lewitt became the sports information director two months later. In addition to those duties, she was the business and ticket manager for the department. She has also served as the compliance director and until the fall of 2015 was the senior women's administrator.

In 2008, she was recognized by the Southern Conference for her role in the growth of women's athletics as the conference celebrated 25 years of women's championships.

Lewitt was promoted to assistant athletic director in 1989, associate director in 1996, and senior associate athletic director in 2012. The Burlington, N.C. native earned her B.A. degree in history from Elon in 1984. Lewitt and her husband, Mark, have two children: Lauren, a 2016 Wofford graduate, and David, a 2018 Wofford graduate. Lauren resides in Charleston with her husband, Jacob, also a 2016 Wofford graduate.

ELIZABETH RABB

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR COMPLIANCE / SWA

Elizabeth Rabb is in her 17th year as a member of the Wofford athletic department. In her current role, she oversees NCAA, Southern Conference and Wofford regulatory issues for all Terrier student-athletes. This includes interpreting NCAA regulations and monitoring recruiting, financial aid and eligibility issues. She took on the role of senior women's administrator in September of 2015 and also provides oversight for the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

In July of 2011, she ended a three-year term as a member of the NCAA's Administration Cabinet. Rabb began serving on the NCAA's Olympic Sports Liaison Committee in September of 2011. She has also served as Wofford's ticket manager and cheerleading coach during her tenure at Wofford.

A native of Johnson City, Tenn., Rabb earned a B.A. degree in history from Wofford in 2001. She earned her master's degree from Converse College in December 2007. While an undergraduate, she worked as a student assistant in the athletic department and was a member of both the cheerleading and dance squads. Rabb also worked as an intern at East Tennessee State and the Southern Conference office.

Rabb and her husband, Marc, were married on June 23, 2007. Marc is the director of media relations at Gardner-Webb University. Their daughter, Ella, was born in June of 2010.

BRENT WILLIAMSON

ASSOCIATE AD FOR MEDIA RELATIONS

Brent Williamson is in his 12th season at Wofford. After eight years as Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations, he was named Associate AD in September of 2015. He joined the Terriers after spending four years as the Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations at the University of Maine.

He is responsible for the media relations operations for the Wofford College Athletic Department and is the primary contact for football and baseball. He oversees all department publications, statistics, news releases, the department's website "woffordterriers.com," and social media outlets. The 2013 football media guide was named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA.

In four years at Maine, Williamson oversaw the media relations for nineteen sports. He was the primary contact for the men's ice hockey team, which advanced to three NCAA Frozen Fours. He worked with six All-Americans and a Hobey Baker Finalist, along with several current NHL players and two Stanley Cup Champions. At Maine he also oversaw the development and production of a bi-weekly television show, The Black Bear Insider, along with other special projects.

Prior to Maine, he spent eight years working in media relations in the National Football League. After two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons, he joined the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1997. In 2002, he was named Director of Media Relations for the Houston Texans. He assisted in the media relations operations at four Super Bowls.

A native of Taylors, S.C., Williamson graduated from Wake Forest University in 1994 with a bachelors degree in history. He added a masters of sports management from the University of Richmond in 1996. His grandfather, W.S. Williamson, graduated from Wofford College in 1932.

He graduated from the University of South Carolina School of Medicine in 2003 and completed his residency in family practice in Greenwood, South Carolina. While in Greenwood, he was associate team doctor for Lander University.

Cole and his wife, Susan, a 1998 graduate of Wofford, have two children, Andrew and Katie.

IVAN CURRY

TEAM PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Ivan Curry is in his 13th year with Wofford as a physical therapist. In his role, he works with student-athletes in the prevention and recovery from injuries. Curry has been on the staff of Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System since 2000.

He graduated from Wofford in 1990 and was a four-year letterman on the soccer team. In 2000, Curry received his Masters of Science in Rehabilitation and Physical Therapy from MUSC. His sister and three brothers also graduated from Wofford College. A native of Comber, County Down, Northern Ireland, Curry became an American citizen in 2000.

At the end of the last academic year, there were approximately 2,000 four-year colleges in the United States. Only 262 of them have the right to induct their graduates into Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's most prestigious liberal arts honor society. There are five independent Phi Beta Kappa colleges and universities in the Carolinas: Wofford, Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest.

Founded at the College of William and Mary in December 1776, Phi Beta Kappa was the first of the Greek letter fraternities and adopted such rituals as the badge, the secret oath, and the special handclasp from the various secret societies of the day.

Phi Beta Kappa, however, was also devoted to the principles of "friendship, morality, and literature (or learning)," and these characteristics gradually attained the greatest emphasis. John Quincy Adams, Edward Everett and Joseph Story, members of the Harvard chapter, are credited with making the fraternity a public literary and honor society for undergraduates in the 1830's. Women were first admitted to Phi Beta Kappa in 1875 at the University of Vermont.

Wofford received its chapter at the 1940 triennial meeting, bringing to fruition more than ten years of work by three Phi Beta Kappa members who were then serving on the faculty: President Henry Nelson Snyder, Dr. David Duncan Wallace, class of 1894, and Dr. John West Harris '16, a brash and brilliant young English professor not afraid to campaign vigorously in the conviction that his alma mater deserved membership. (Dr. Harris later founded the National Beta Club, which still has its headquarters in Spartanburg).

With about 350,000 members across the country, Phi Beta Kappa today sponsors numerous programs to encourage scholarship and learning, including the Phi Beta Kappa Book Awards and the visiting scholar, academic fellowship and leadership programs.

For these reasons, Phi Beta Kappa Day at Wofford has institutional significance, as well as being especially memorable for the new members, each of whom will receive the traditional Phi Beta Kappa watch key or pin.

Nick Colvin '17 (above) was one of four football players to be inducted into Phi Beta Kappa in the 2016-17 academic year.

The Southern Conference, which is in its 98th season of intercollegiate competition in 2018-19, is a national leader in emphasizing the development of the student-athlete and in helping to build lifelong leaders and role models.

The Southern Conference has been on the forefront of innovation and originality in developing creative solutions to address issues facing intercollegiate athletics. From establishing the first postseason college basketball tournament (1921), to tackling the issue of freshman eligibility (1922), to developing women's championships (1984), to becoming the first conference to install the 3-point goal in basketball (1980), the Southern Conference has been a pioneer.

The Southern Conference is the nation's fifth-oldest NCAA Division I collegiate athletic association. Only the Big Ten (1896), the Missouri Valley (1907), the Pac-12 (1915) and the Southwestern Athletic (1920) conferences are older in terms of origination.

Academic excellence has been a major part of the Southern Conference's tradition. Hundreds of Southern Conference student-athletes have been recognized on CoSIDA Academic All-America and all-district teams. A total of 20 Rhodes Scholarship winners have been selected from conference institutions, most recently in 2012-13, when former Wofford volleyball player Rachel Woodlee earned the prestigious award.

The conference currently consists of 10 members in six states throughout the Southeast and sponsors 22 varsity sports and championships that produce participants for NCAA Division I Championships. The league added rifle, becoming just the second Division I conference to sponsor the sport, in 2016-17, and added women's lacrosse for the 2017-18 campaign.

The Southern Conference offices are located in the historic Beaumont Mill in Spartanburg, S.C. A textile mill that was in operation from 1880 until 1999, Beaumont Mill was renovated in 2004 and today offers the league first-class meeting areas and offices as well as a spacious library for storage of the conference's historical documents.

MEMBERSHIP HISTORY

On Feb. 25, 1921, representatives from 14 of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association's (SIAA) 30 members met at Atlanta's Piedmont Hotel to establish the Southern Intercollegiate Conference. On hand at the inaugural meeting were officials from Alabama, Alabama Polytechnic Institute (Auburn), Clemson, Georgia, Georgia School of Technology (Georgia Tech), Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi A&M (Mississippi State), North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Polytechnic Institute (Virginia Tech) and Washington & Lee.

Dr. S.V. Sanford of Georgia was chosen as acting chairman and N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee was named secretary. The decision to form a new athletic conference was motivated by the desire to have a workable number of conference games for each league member. With 30 schools in the SIAA by the early 1920s, it was impossible to play every school at least once during the regular season and many schools went several years between playing some conference members. In addition, in 1920, the SIAA voted down proposed rules that an athlete must be in a college a year before playing on its teams and refused to abolish a rule permitting athletes to play summer baseball for money.

Play began in the fall of 1921, and a year later, six more schools joined the fledgling league, including Tulane (which had attended the inaugural meeting but had elected not to join), Florida, Louisiana (LSU), Mississippi, South Carolina and Vanderbilt. VMI joined in 1925 and Duke was added in 1929.

By the 1930s, membership in the Southern Conference had reached 23 schools. C.P. "Sally" Miles of Virginia Tech, president of the Southern Conference, called the annual league meeting to order on Dec. 9, 1932, at the Farragut Hotel in Knoxville, Tenn. Georgia's Dr. Sanford announced that 13 institutions west and south of the Appalachian Mountains were reorganizing as the Southeastern Conference. Members of the new league included Alabama, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Florida, Georgia, Georgia School of Technology, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Mississippi A&M, University of the South, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

According to the minutes of the meeting, Dr. Sanford stated that the division was made along geographical lines. Florida's Dr. J.J. Tigert, acting as spokesman for the withdrawing group, regretted the move but believed it was necessary as the Southern Conference had grown too large. The resignations were accepted and the withdrawing schools formed the new league, which began play in 1933.

The Southern Conference office is located in the refurbished Beaumont Mill in Spartanburg, less than a mile from the Wofford campus.

The Southern Conference continued with membership of 10 institutions, including Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina, Virginia, VMI, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

The second major shift occurred some 20 years later. By 1952, the Southern Conference included 17 colleges and universities. Another split occurred when seven schools – Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest – departed to form the Atlantic Coast Conference, which began play in 1953. The revamped Southern Conference included members The Citadel, Davidson, Furman, George Washington, Richmond, VMI, Virginia Tech, Washington & Lee, West Virginia and William & Mary.

A third major shift occurred in 2012-13, when five members announced their departures and three schools were added. College of Charleston announced its decision to leave for the Colonial Athletic Association following the 2012-13 season, while Appalachian State (Sun Belt), Davidson (Atlantic 10), Elon (Colonial) and Georgia Southern (Sun Belt) announced they would depart following the 2013-14 campaign. At the Southern Conference's 2013 spring meetings in Hilton Head Island, S.C., the league officially extended invitations to former members ETSU and VMI, as well as Mercer, to join the league for the 2014-15 academic year.

Today, the league continues to thrive with a membership that includes 10 institutions and a footprint that spans six states: Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. Current league members are The Citadel, ETSU, Furman, Mercer, UNCG, Samford, Chattanooga, VMI, Western Carolina and Wofford.

FOOTBALL

The Southern Conference has also excelled as the premier Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) conference. Former Southern Conference member Appalachian State won the three consecutive FCS titles from 2005-07, becoming the first team to do so. The league boasts more than 250 players who have garnered All-America recognition and numerous national player or coach of the year awards. The conference had at least one team in the top 10 of the final FCS poll for 28 consecutive years (1985-2012), with at least two teams finishing in the final poll in every season from 1982-2013. Three SoCon teams – Furman, Samford and Wofford – finished in the top 25 in 2017.

The conference has placed multiple representatives in the FCS Playoffs in 29 of 34 seasons, with 16 championship game appearances and eight national titles.

WOFFORD HALL OF FAME

WOFFORD ATHLETICS
HALL OF FAME

Recognizing the value of athletics to Wofford College and the American way of life, the Terrier Club established a policy of administering and sustaining the Wofford College Athletic Hall of Fame.

The purpose of the Hall of Fame is to honor those who, by outstanding athletic achievement and service, have made lasting and significant contributions to the cause of sports at Wofford College, the Spartanburg community, South Carolina and the Nation.

Any Wofford College Graduate who received a letter from the Wofford College Athletic Department is eligible for selection to the Hall of Fame five (5) years after completion of eligibility.

1985 JACK ABELL '54
Abell was a multi-sport letterman at Wofford from 1950-54. He set the school record for most pass receptions in a game with 10 against Presbyterian in 1952 and in a season with 57 during the 1952 campaign.

1980 GENE ALEXANDER
Alexander gained fame as Wofford's head men's basketball coach from 1959-77. He began his coaching career at Erskine where he was an assistant football coach as well as head basketball coach. In 1958 he moved to Wofford where, in addition to his job as basketball coach, he also assumed the role of assistant football coach, athletic business manager, and athletic director.

PLC STERLING ALLEN '73
Allen earned second team NAIA All-America honors at guard in 1969 and was named Little All-America in 1969 and in 1970. He was selected to the American Football Coaches Association All-America team in 1970 and named best blocker at the 1969 football banquet.

1991 SID ALLRED '70
Allred played his freshman season at Georgia before transferring to Wofford. He earned Associated Press Little All-America honors as a linebacker in 1968. In 1969 he was a second team NAIA All-America pick at linebacker and also a Kodak Little All-America selection. He was an NAIA All-District 6 selection in 1967 as a defensive tackle and in 1968 at linebacker. In 1969 he earned All-South Carolina accolades and served as an alternate captain. In 1967, Allred was the first sophomore in school history to be named team MVP.

1980 WARREN ARIAIL '49
Ariail served as Wofford's first athletic trainer. He went on to a long training career in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins, New Orleans Saints, Houston Oilers and Carolina Panthers.

2010 LEE BASINGER '05
Basinger was named All-Southern Conference in 2003 and 2004 at defensive end for Wofford. As a senior in 2004 he earned AP First Team All-American honors. He was a finalist for the 2004 Buck Buchanan Award. He holds school marks for tackles for loss in a game and fumbles forced in a game.

2011 KATON BETHAY '06
Bethay was a defensive lineman for the Wofford football team and threw the shot and discus for the track and field team. He was the first Terriers to earn All-Southern Conference honors in two sports. On the football field, he earned third team AP All-American in 2005. As a senior in 2005, he was named SoCon Defensive Player of the Year by the Coaches.

1982 JACK BEELER '52
In 1951 Beeler became the first South Carolina small college player to be invited to a postseason all-star game, playing in the Blue-Gray Game in Montgomery, AL. A passing tailback from Knoxville, TN, Beeler completed nearly 60 percent of his passes during the season.

1988 LENOID BEST '82
Best averaged a team-record 124.4 yards-per-game in 1979 as he was named Wofford's most outstanding offensive player. He set the season record of 1,120 rushing yards in 1979 and was named the South Carolina NAIA Player of the Year in 1980 when he led Wofford to a 7-2-2 record. In 1979, his 6.8 yards per carry was second nationally.

2006 BRIAN BODOR '01
